Rectory Office Hours

Monday – Friday, 8 am - 2 pm

May 26, 2019 – Sixth Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

St. Luke gives us the resolution to an early Church dispute over Gentile converts being made to first adopt Jewish ways. The Holy Spirit clearly inspires the decision.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

With its foundation on the Twelve Apostles the heavenly Jerusalem represents the future, when God and His people will dwell together forever.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus prepares His Apostles for His departure, telling them to rejoice over it. The coming Paraclete will help them better understand all that Jesus said and did.

Reflection:

Revelation keeps our feet firmly rooted in our present struggles to live the Christian life; but it also focuses our eyes on what is to come. The world's indomitable powers, despite present appearances, will be overcome. In the meanwhile, John is inviting us to turn away from the false values and powers of the world and focus on the vision of the new Holy City where we will dwell with God and one another.

So we ask ourselves:

- How does our hope in a permanent future with God affect our lives now?
- What signs do I see that strengthen my hope in the power of good over evil?

What is the Ascension?

By Mike Hayes

The Ascension refers to the day celebrated 40 days after Easter when Catholics celebrate the fact that Jesus returns to God after being with his disciples after the resurrection. It is a central element of our tradition and is included in the creed recited at Mass each Sunday. It is also a Holy Day of Obligation and Catholics are required to go to Mass on that day. (This year the feast of the Ascension is on Thursday, May 30th.)

The scriptural basis for this comes from Acts 1:9-11. And after He had said these things, He was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was going, behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them. They also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven."

This is not meant to be taken as a literal passage in the sense of a "beam me up" kind of story. The Ascension signifies that Christ is no longer bound by the time and space that he was while he was in the fullness of his humanity. Jesus is Lord and that means that Lordship goes beyond mere humanity. Others may claim kingship but the only one who is Lord and King is Jesus. Most importantly, the day signifies that God can be experienced anywhere and not just in time and space.

A Memorial Day Prayer

Gracious God,
on this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom.

May the examples of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with Your strength and peace.

In union with people of goodwill of every nation, embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe.

We ask this in your name.

Amen.
