Fifth Sunday of Lent, March 18, 2018

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

*As a parish community united in Jesus and dedicated to Mary,
We are called to discipleship through worship and service.*

The Fifth Sunday of Lent - March 18, 2018 A Message from Deacon Bob

Years ago, when my parents were still alive, they took a car trip along the west coast, concentrating their travel in California. They brought back with them pictures from Sequoia National Park where the famous General Sherman redwood tree towers, 275 feet tall. The tree is so tall that if you were to stand as much as 30 feet away and try to see the top, you would fall over backwards. At its base rests a plaque containing a seed taken from the tree — a seed no larger than the nail of your little finger. A similar seed, buried in the earth, needed sun, water, soil and about 25 centuries to grow to the present height of 275 feet.

This tree in America was approximately five centuries old when Jesus walked the earth in far-off Palestine. At that time it was slowly but persistently growing heavenward — a living example of the mysterious words of Jesus in today's Gospel: "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit."

With these words, Jesus proclaimed the paradox of the Father's plan — that death is the source of life. It's a law of sacrifice...that one can come to a greater life only by dying to a lesser one. It's a law exemplified in nature — in a grain of wheat and in the seed of a tree. A seed, which does not "die" by being buried in the earth, can never grow into something greater. In a sense, Jesus was like that seed. He too had to die and be buried in the earth. Then on Easter he pushed through the confinement of his tomb and reached heaven to enjoy the fullness of new life.

In the closing weeks of Lent, we are reminded that no matter how small or insignificant we may seem, we can grow with Jesus to the fullness of everlasting life. What God did for Jesus, He does for each of us.

Deacon Bob

MyParish App Coming Soon

In the coming weeks, Assumption BVM will launch our own app for iPhone and Android smart phones.

This will allow us to better communicate with you throughout the week and keep you updated with relevant parish news or updates. Well designed and very intuitive, the app will be a great resource for parishioners by providing daily Mass readings, Catholic news and prayers, convenient prayer and Confession reminders, our bulletins and much more.

Our hope is that the new app will be a tool for fostering stronger parish life at Assumption BVM and better engaging the New Evangelization.

Download the app today by going to myparish.com and please watch, in the coming weeks, for our official launch announcement.

Men Who Cook” at ABVM
Saturday, April 28th, 2018 - 7 PM Parish Hall

Mr. James Fitzpatrick was a Bensalem police officer who went on to become an FBI profiler. He specialized in linguistic forensics. This unique skill was what made it possible to apprehend the UNA Bomber. We will have as an auction item a dinner with Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Fitzgerald has consented to have a dinner with 6 people. He will field questions, personalize, and sign one of his books. The proprietors at Johnny Apples have offered to host this dinner.

An overnight accommodation at the Philadelphia Airport Marriott will also be an auction item.

Tickets are available in the rectory or by contacting Bill & Rosemarie McCafferty at #215-355-9017 or #215-801-6090.

We would also welcome any donations of unopened bottles of liquor or wine.

We hope to complete the painting of the hall this coming Monday evening starting at 6:30 PM. If you like to paint, please come and join us.

Thank you and God bless you and yours.
Father John Kelly

Divine Mercy Sunday is April 8th.

Jesus told Sister Faustina, “I want this image to be solemnly blessed on the First Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy. On that day, the depths of My mercy will be open to all. Whoever will go to confession (20 days before or after) and Holy Communion on that day will receive complete forgiveness of sin and punishment. Mankind will not enjoy peace until it turns with confidence to My Mercy”. In preparation for this great feast, we can show mercy to others, pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet daily at 3 PM and say the novena. Pamphlets and prayer cards are available in the back of the Church.

Sunday, April 8th at St. Dominic's Marian Hall

YOUTH NEWS

St. Katharine Drexel School News Principal's Corner

Next week, our students in Grades 2-7 will participate in standardized testing. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia utilizes the Terra Nova which is a national standardized test published by McGraw Hill. The Terra Nova is an assessment that we use to promote greater learning and academic growth for each student. The individual reports highlight students' overall abilities and strengths. As a faculty, we use the results to direct our constant efforts to improve instruction. Our results certainly tell a story of academic excellence that leads to impressive real-world outcomes.

Our students continue to score in the top 15% of all schools in the nation in English Language Arts and Mathematics, and we meet the qualifications to be considered a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence.

We have sent in our application for this exemplary title through the U.S. Department of Education. It is no surprise that our students produce outstanding results, and this standardized testing is just one piece of the overall assessment of our school's success.

Please pray for our test-takers this week as we continue to fulfill our mission and form successful Catholic leaders.

Youth In Action (YIA)

Y.I.A. met on Feb. 26th. With great teamwork we were able to bake dozens of cookies and assemble them in 75 bags! These bags of cookies were delivered to Aid for Friends so that they can attach them to meals to be delivered.

YIA meets on the fourth Monday of every month from 6:15—7:45 PM. We focus on doing works of mercy and on having fun together. Beginning on the weekend of April 7-8, we will have collection bins in the church narthex to collect toiletries for Valley Youth House.

Our March meeting is scheduled for the 26th. We plan to assemble other special gifts. Please join us, and bring a friend.

For questions about YAI, please contact Ms. Koob at 610-585-0212 or at sharonkoob@gmail.com.
