A Message From Deacon Bob

I think everyone loves a good story and one of my favorite storytellers is the late Anthony de Mello, S.J. Here's his version of an Arabian folk tale:

A man walking through the forest saw a fox that had lost his legs. He wondered how the poor animal could survive. Then he saw a tiger come into the clearing with game in its mouth. The tiger ate its fill and then left the rest of the meat for the fox. The next day God fed the fox by means of the same tiger.

The man began to wonder at God's great goodness and said to himself, "I too shall just rest here in full trust in the Lord that he will provide me with what I need."

The man remained in the forest for several days. But nothing happened. The poor man was almost at death's door with hunger when he heard a voice: "Oh, you poor fool. Open your eyes to the truth. Stop imitating the disabled fox and, instead, follow the example of the tiger.

How could God care for a disabled fox and not a human being? It doesn't seem right – or fair. It doesn't make sense to us. God's generosity, love and forgiveness are so extravagant that they often offend our sense of carefully timed and measured justice. The generosity of the vineyard owner in today's Gospel conflicts with our own concept of what is right and fair. But limitless love and unconditional forgiveness are the ways of God, no matter what our own sense of justice or fairness may dictate. The call to discipleship demands that, like the tiger, we seek to become ministers of God's mercy and justice before our own needs and wants.

At the end of his story, Tony de Mello adds this current day example: "On the street I saw a naked child, hungry and shivering in the cold. I became angry and said to God: "Why do you permit this? Why don't you do something? For a while God said nothing. That night he replied, quite suddenly, 'I certainly did something. I made you.'

May we each be an agent for good this week!

Sun of Hope Orphanage Village
Christmas Gift Fund

Last year Assumption parishioners provided a "first" Christmas for the children at the Sun of Hope Orphanage. This year, we would once again like to provide the children with a special Christmas and with thirteen new children, we again have the opportunity to provide a "first" Christmas experience! During the month of October, a donation box will be in the back of church. Please consider donating to our Christmas Gift Fund—any size donation is welcomed and appreciated. If paying by check, please make it payable to Assumption BVM and place in an envelope marked Christmas Gift Fund and your name. Assumption will process your donation and in November forward the total amount collected to the Holy Spirit Sisters. The orphanage will then purchase Christmas gifts for the children. Last year's donations purchased new clothes, shoes, special treats for a Christmas Party, etc. Thank you! Parents MUST park their vehicles and come to pick up their children. There will be helpers to direct you —please cooperate with their instructions.

PREP parents are reminded of our Welcome Gathering for Parents on October 1 and 2. At least one parent should plan to attend. Please check with your child for notes with details, which will be sent on September 24 and 25.

The revised PREP Family Handbook has been posted on the Religious Education office webpage.

YOUTH NEWS

Saint Katharine Drexel Catholic School News Principal's Corner

As we continue to promote kindness in our classroom, cafeteria, school yard, and school community, there is so much wonderful learning happening at all grade levels.

- Our Student Council and our National Junior Honor Society has adopted a classroom to aid the victims of Hurricane Harvey. Each classroom received a backpack graphic with prices to hang in their classroom. The goal is to raise enough money to fill a backpack. Each class will try to fill as many backpacks as possible.
- Our students have been working hard and trying to complete Random Acts of Kindness each day. Kindness is discussed each day at the beginning of community prayer and then within each students' individual homeroom. They are reminded that "Kindness inspires Kindness."
- Our students have been visiting their prayer buddies and completing various activities with each other. It is so nice to witness this partnership between our younger students and our older students.

As always, I thank you for your prayers and support for our school. We ask our Lord to help us remember our main purpose in life-to know, to love, and to serve Him through knowing, loving, and serving others!
