PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

*As a parish community united in Jesus and dedicated to Mary,
We are called to discipleship through worship and service.*

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 14, 2018

Father Mike's Musings

While I had felt a need to offer an apology last year at Christmas for my sadness and distress then, I am grateful to God and to you, whom I consider my parish family, for some freedom from sadness and distress this year. I am grateful, too, for this opportunity to express much gratitude for all who had contributed to the beauty of Christmas in Feasterville this year. I am truly blessed by my brother priests, Father Renny and Father Kelly, for who they are and all they do, mostly behind the scenes, to encourage me in my ministry as your Pastor. I am certain you share my thanks for how they minister to you; Father Renny's unassuming and loving willingness to be present to Mass, confessions, and parish functions, and Father Kelly's humor and passion to willingly serve you as he ministers during Mass, confessions, Funeral Liturgies, and parish functions truly add to who our parish is. Speaking of Father Kelly, whose forte' is to see needs and devise ways to address them, I thank him for leading the committee for the "Men Who Cook" social and fund-raising event on April 28, and thank his committee members for their commitment to our parish. I and we are blessed by Deacons Bob and Eric; their attention to homily preparation and willingness to be present to us add to who our parish is. Our deacons are always thinking ahead for the good of our parish, and as time moves on, we will discover future programs. I am blessed by our parish staff: Sister Diane; Joyce Boag-Leyrer; Fred Perazzelli; Dot Vogel; Susanne Brooks; Kathy McLaughlin. They are always willing to lovingly "go out of their way" to assist us, and to truly show who our parish is in providing for our needs and the needs of our larger community. While Father Shaji Silva, Chaplain of our Indian Latin Catholic Community does not live here, he and his community, that is, OUR community, add to who our parish is. Moving forward, some of the families will be registering in our parish, and I will be appointing members of the Community to serve on the Finance and Pastoral Councils. Laura Clark, who continues to serve as the Principal and the Faculty and Staff of our school, St. Katharine Drexel, lovingly give of themselves for the good of our students, the future Catholic leaders, and complement who our parish is.

I thank all of you for celebrating the gift of Jesus this Christmas; I am elated when I see you at Mass, and especially love seeing more of you at Christmas. True celebration, I think, is only enhanced by music and song; Margie Crooks, Kathy McLaughlin, our Cantors and Choir truly assisted us during our Christmas, and all celebrations. All who serve our parish as liturgical ministers enhance every celebration; I am grateful to you Readers, Altar Servers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Ushers and Greeters for lovingly giving of yourselves to show that ABVM welcome to all who join us for Mass. As I had mentioned in a homily several weeks ago, I want to be accountable as your Pastor, and need you to let me know if I am saying or doing anything which prevents your growth in faith, that is, in a closer relationship with God, Who is Perfectly revealed in His Incarnate Son Jesus. A blessed "2018".

My thanks to all of you who had so generously helped all the families who had a Christmas because you took a tag or tags from the "Love Tree," and all you generous and anonymous parishioners who gave a monetary donation for needy families. Susanne and Steven Brooks selflessly put much time and effort into the "Love Tree" project, and our wonderful teens of the Teen Youth Group generously gave of themselves to help organize the gifts; I thank them and all who pitched in to help organize the gifts on December 10th.

On a personal note, I thank you for your cards, gifts, and all the sweet treats at Christmas time; I am sure my brother priests and staff also appreciated the "fruits" of your baking!

Love and Peace, Father Mike

Assumption Guide Book

In the fall parishioners received a Parish Guide Book which is a wonderful resource for information about ABVM. If you did not receive one in the mail please call the rectory. It will soon be time to plan the 2nd edition, so this is a check up on your retention skills since I am sure the info was devoured at first reading!

Guide Book Quiz

Can you explain "Helping hands" to a parishioner or are you available to join this wonderful group? (pg. 19)
What is "Beyond Welcome to Belonging? (pg. 10.)
What does YIA stand for? (pg. 25)

EXPECTANT AND NEW PARENTS

Registration for your child's Baptism should be part of the plans for your baby's arrival. Just call the rectory, 215-357-1221, to begin the process. Life will only get busier once your little one arrives. If you have already been blessed with a new little one and you haven't registered for the Baptism program, just call. You will be sent a letter with information about the process. For whatever reason, if your child is older and have never been baptized, guess what, just call. The next Baptism Meet and Greet gathering is Sat., February 17th from 9:30-11:30 AM in the rectory meeting room. Once you receive the letter, call to schedule the parent interview which should take place before the 'Meet and Greet' with other couples and members of the Baptism team.

URGENT NEED

Our parish supports the Aid for Friends Meal Program that provides meals for the elderly isolated homebound. Please consider making a few extra portions and freezing it to provide a home cooked meal for one of these people. Trays and soup containers are available beneath the rack in the church vestibule. Bring them back when you come to church and give to an usher who will take them downstairs to the Aid for Friends freezer for you. Many thanks for your help.

Christmas Love Tree Recap

THANK YOU!

Your overwhelming generosity provided gifts for over 90 children and their families as well as 13 residents of the Little Sisters of the Poor Home, Blessed Margaret of Castello Home and the Sisters of St. Joseph's Welcome Center where many more children were able to have a brighter Christmas. May your New Year be filled with many blessings.

A big thank you to our Teen Youth group and their parents and the members of our Evangelization team and the Legion of Mary members who sorted and packed up all the gifts.

YOUTH NEWS

St. Katharine Drexel School News Principal's Corner

Throughout the school year, we are reminded of the many ways our school community portrays and shares our Catholic identity. We know that by the time our students graduate from 8th grade, they are well aware of this identity. Each day, we help our students develop a true understanding of their parent's gift of a Catholic education!

In order to continue educating our students and empowering them with the essential tools for life, we heavily rely on our benefactors. Because of your financial support, we are able to offer a Catholic Education to all who desire it for their children. It also helps us bridge the gap between what is charged for tuition and the actual cost of educating our students.

Thank you for your constant support and prayers for your parish school. I encourage you to continue to support our work as we advance our mission to provide a transformative education steeped in academic excellence to our deserving students. There is no greater investment for forming our future leaders and saints than a Catholic education!

Principal
