PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

*As a parish community united in Jesus and dedicated to Mary,
We are called to discipleship through worship and service.*

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — July 16, 2017
A Message from Deacon Bob

Gregory, a budding research scientist in fifth grade, was conducting an experiment on a grasshopper for his science project. He put the grasshopper on a table, leaned down until his face was inches away from the insect, and screamed, "Jump!" The grasshopper leapt into the air.

Gregory then carefully removed one of the insect's legs. Then he leaned down and screamed once again. "Jump!" The grasshopper responded as before.

Gregory repeated this process four more times, each time removing one of the grasshopper's legs. Each time, the grasshopper leapt into the air, although each leap was understandably less impressive than the one before.

Finally, Gregory removed the grasshopper's last leg. Then he leaned down and screamed one more time, "Jump!" The grasshopper didn't move. Satisfied, the would-be scientist opened his journal and entered the results of his experiment. His conclusion: "When all six legs have been removed, the grasshopper becomes deaf."

The young boy's analysis isn't so different from our own inability to understand why our world, our communities, our families, our own lives are not all that we would like them to be. We fail to understand that love and justice are values that must be planted and nourished, sustained and cared for, like any planted seed. We spend hours and hours at our jobs, and then wonder why our families have become strangers. We carry our biases and resentments like badges of honor, and then wonder why anger and violence strangle society. We easily justify our own ignoring the cries of the poor around us, and then can't understand why nothing can be done for them. The parable of the sower challenges us to allow the Word of God to take root within us so that we may become sowers of the harvest of justice, peace, mercy and reconciliation that Christ calls us to become.

Bloom where you have been planted!
Deacon Bob
