NIC NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

As you probably know, the months of October and May are dedicated to the Blessed Mother. Throughout the year, different months are dedicated to different truths of our faith like Our Lord or a Saint, etc. The month of November is dedicated to the Poor Souls in Purgatory. The Church like a mother reminds us at different times of the year to put our focus on different things. So the church reminds us that during this month of November we should be praying for the souls in Purgatory. Your Parish Priests will be remembering all the souls of those you have listed to be remembered on your All Souls Envelopes. Let each and every one of us remember to pray each and every day for the poor Souls in Purgatory, especially those in most need of our prayers.

Our All Souls Mass on Thursday evening November 2, was very beautiful. At this special Mass, which we celebrate each year on the feast of All Souls, we remember every deceased parishioner from the foundation of this parish 98 years ago till this day and, especially those who died since last November 2. Praying for the dead is one of the Church’s Spiritual Works of Mercy.

I'm deeply grateful to the Knights of Columbus for their willingness to sponsor the Dinner on DeKalb. Even though the weather did not cooperate and we were not able to hold the event, I am very grateful for all the work that was done by the Dinner on DeKalb Committee. We had been meeting since before the summer and they put a great deal of time and effort and love into the project. Once again I thank the Committee! Thank you and God bless you!

I'm also very grateful to the Knights of Columbus who do so many wonderful things in our parish and in our Archdiocese as well as the whole world. I would recommend to every Catholic gentleman in our parish to consider joining the Knights of Columbus. They do so many things that we may see and many more things that we don't necessarily even know about and it is all done for the good of the Church. Thank you and God bless you!

Last Sunday I participated in the inaugural Mass and celebration of the Order of BVM of Mercy.

It was a wonderful celebration in which the Apostolic Nuncio to the United States was the main celebrant.

The concelebrants included our own Archbishop, Bishop Senior, the Mercedarian Provincial, their Vicar - Provincial, as well as priests from the Order, other Religious, and Diocesan Priests. It was a wonderful celebration. I was honored to be a part of it and offer our love and prayers for their Order and, in a particular way to Father Scott, Brother Matthew, and Brother Gerard. Father Scott, as well as Brother Matthew and Brother Gerard, assist us here at St. Helena parish. We are very grateful for their presence and assistance.

May God through the intercession of St. Helena bless us!

Love and Prayers,
Msg. Nicolo

MADELEINE’S MESSAGE

Colleen Mroz, Helen Winterbottom and Noel Bergey teach Level Five PREP. Every Tuesday, our Level Five students deepen their appreciation for the life in the Church - especially for the Sacraments.

Level Five curriculum focuses on the seven Sacraments. The children learn that the Sacraments are sacred signs as well as celebrations for members of our church. They also learn more about the Holy Trinity and how the Trinity relates to the Sacraments. In the Sacraments, the children celebrate what Jesus has taught, that the Sacrament make us one with Him and with one another, leading us to the Father in the unity of the Spirit.

KEN’S CACHE

HARVEST TIME MUSINGS
ROGER BROOKE TANEY AND DRED SCOTT

In 1857, Roger Brooke Taney, the first Catholic Supreme Court Chief Justice, handed down the infamous Dred Scott decision. Scott, a black slave, had been taken by his owner from Missouri to Illinois in 1834, and on his return to Missouri sued for his liberty on grounds that his stay in free territory had ended his slavery. Taney rejected this argument, ruling in essence that Dred Scott was a slave, and as such was not a citizen and not qualified to sue in Federal court. Taney ruled further that Congress had no power to exclude slavery from the territories opening in the West, and finally that blacks could not become citizens.

The nation was only four years away from civil war over slavery, so of course the impact of Taney’s decision was enormous. The South welcomed the ruling, but its reasoning, like the South’s own self-interest, ran counter to dominant social and political trends, as well as the truth that able men are equal before God. History would prove that unmistakably. More immediately, Taney’s decision dangerously undermined the prestige of the High Court. It fed the then-common stereotype of the fondness of the Catholic mind for oppression, and it left his reputation in shambles for all time.

The irony is that in his private life Taney, a Southerner, did not believe in slavery. He freed the slaves he inherited on his father’s death, and he pensioned his freedmen when they grew too old to earn their living. In a similar vein, his pastor recorded that in going to confession Taney insisted on taking his place in line, even though most of those ahead of him were slaves. That glosses nothing, to be sure. Apologists contend that in the Dred Scott case Taney was doing no more than interpreting the law as presently on the books – which glosses nothing either. In plainest language, Taney erred.

God Bless,
Deacon Ken

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.
