From the Pastor...

Dear Friends of Saint Kevin,

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is telling his disciples to fear no one. He is trying to focus them on what is most important when it comes to spirituality. He tells them to speak in the light, proclaim the good news from the rooftops. Jesus then says to not be afraid.

How can we best incorporate this into our daily life? How do we fear no one? It is of course human nature to experience fear from time to time; but what is that fear coming from? Jesus wants us to focus ourselves on what is most important in our lives. He doesn't want our days to be filled with fear, worry and stress. We all must ask ourselves, "What are our priorities today?" Are we preoccupied with to do lists and busy calendars? Where is God in our priorities? Living a life of JOY will help us all focus our priorities. Living a life of joy means putting Jesus first, others second and ourselves last.

Jesus doesn't want us to be afraid. He wants us to go out into the world and preach the gospel to one another and he wants us to be happy. Let us pray for each other that we will continue to be able to implement this into our daily lives. Have a wonderful week!

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Moloney

– SIGN UP FOR ELECTRONIC GIVING –

St. Kevin Parish has enlisted Parish Giving to provide its parishioners with the opportunity to use weekly or monthly electronic funds transfers as an alternative method for giving. Parish Giving is a safe secure and easy way to donate. It is being offered to you free of charge. Some of the features offered include

- Ability to make one-time contributions
- Ability to make recurring contributions
- Ability to select your billing date
- Ability to use Credit Card or Bank Transfer
- Ability to access end of year contribution reports.

This is a great way to support our parish. To sign up or learns more visit www.stkevin.com

ST. KEVIN PARISH NURSES
 Parish Nurses will be taking blood pressures after the 9:30 and 11:00AM Masses on the final Sunday date of JUNE 25TH.

There will be no blood pressures taken in July and August.

High blood pressure is a common medical condition which affects 1 in 3 adults in the United States. Because there are often no warning signs, it is a good idea to monitor your BP periodically. Hypertension can increase your risk of cardiovascular events such as heart attack and stroke. It will only take a few minutes and may save your life

From Mr. Brac
 Youth Ministry Office

Dear Parishioners,

Over the past several weeks, I have had the opportunity to meet more and more friends across the parish. Again, I appreciate the warm welcome!

Now is the time for each of us to truly come to the table of our Lord and let Him guide the journey of our youth. There have been so many wonderful people who have approached me voicing interest in serving on the CORE team to some capacity. I am grateful for all of your support and prayers.

So let's keep this simple—youth ministry officially starts in September. There are 168 hours in a week. Let's help our young people fill their 168 hours with a little more spiritual guidance and connection with our Lord. Of course I should include that we will be serving FAITH, FUN and FOOD!

Please do not hesitate to contact me at any time. I love hearing from and meeting parishioners!

Peace and Harmony,

Mr. Jeffrey Braconnier

PRO LIFE CORNER

Hatred for Life Is a Toxic Pathology (Part 1) by Judie Brown

During a recent address, Vatican official Cardinal Gerhard Müller told a Canadian audience: "Euthanasia is not only wrong in itself, but its legalization creates 'toxic and deadly pathologies that disproportionately afflict the weakest members of society.'"

The definition of such a pathology applies to all that is wrong in a culture driven to accept imposed death, whether such acts occur before or after birth. And as Müller went on to say:

Supporters of legal euthanasia argue that respect for autonomy and self-determination entitles individuals to choose the time and manner of their death, especially when faced with suffering and profound dependence. Euthanasia advocates attempt to bolster this claim by asserting that this is a decision that only affects the patient and doesn't cause harm or even involve anyone else. . . .

Human beings do not exist as atomized units whose actions are entirely limited to their own sphere of consequences. People exist in embedded relationships to others—families, communities, and nations.

The cardinal's words, though addressing the problem of euthanasia/assisted suicide, apply to any action or idea that supports the proposition that one person can exert power over another, even if the result is death for the vulnerable human being in the equation.

Pope Francis once taught in a homily that "God is the source of life; thanks to his breath, man has life. God's breath sustains the entire journey of our life on earth." This is precisely why those who disdain the gift of life and choose to define it in terms of autonomy or personal choices degrade the value of the human person and spew forth a toxic poison that has created a godless pathology that is eating away at society. We see this illustrated by three influential women.

Gloria Steinem, archenemy of the vulnerable preborn, recently said: "It's obviously ridiculous to say somebody is 'pro-abortion.' Nobody wakes up in the morning and says, 'I think I'll have an abortion. It's a pleasurable experience.' The question is not pro-abortion or anti-abortion, the question is who makes the decision: a woman and her physician, or the government."

Note that she does not suggest that the question is: "Should I kill my baby today or find help so that I can carry my child to term?" Rather, the Steinem narrative is designed to advance the cause of killing, not that of affirming life. But that is what the pro-death vultures do; it is their stock in trade.
