Reflection

(Published by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia
Office for the New Evangelization)

The Centennial of Our Lady of Fatima:

The First Saturday Devotion and the Dogmas of Mary

Our Lady of Fatima asked Lucia, Jacinta, and Francisco, to spread devotion to her Immaculate Heart. Our Lady also asked the children for the First Saturdays Devotion.

The First Saturdays Devotion invites Christians to go to confession; receive communion; recite five decades of the rosary; and meditate for an additional fifteen minutes on the mysteries of the rosary. This practice is to take place on the first Saturday of the month for five consecutive months.

Sr. Lucia later explained that these five Saturdays are to be offered in reparation for the five kinds of offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary: blasphemies against her Immaculate Conception, her Perpetual Virginity, her Divine and Spiritual Motherhood, as well as dishonoring her images, and failure to implant in the hearts of children a knowledge and love of Mary.

The Marian Dogmas – Why They Matter

Three of the five sins that we seek to repair through the First Saturdays Devotion concern offenses against three of the Marian dogmas. They are:

Mary's Immaculate Conception – that Our Lady was, from the first moment of her conception, preserved from all stain of sin, including original sin

Mary's Perpetual Virginity – that Our Lady's virginity remained intact throughout the course of her life and she knew no sexual intimacy with a man

Mary's Divine Maternity – that Our Lady is not just the Mother of Jesus' humanity, but because Jesus is both God and man, Mary is rightly and truly the Mother of God. Dogmas are truths given to us by the Church to anchor our faith. They are guaranteed by Jesus Christ to be infallible. Catholics are obliged to believe dogmas with an "irrevocable adherence of faith" [Catechism of the Catholic Church 88], with the full assent of our wills. Why such an obligation? Because dogmas represent truths that God himself has revealed, truths that God wants us to know in order to bring joy to our hearts. Dogmas guarantee that our relationship with Jesus and Mary is authentic, that we truly know who they are. Dogmas define the true path to Eternal Life and prevent us from going astray.
