Thank you for your Sacrificial Generosity.
Dear Friends,

Every Sunday we are invited anew to follow Jesus. No matter what our limitations or impediments may be, Jesus calls us to follow Him. Sometimes even when we don’t realize it, we are being called. On this Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel from Saint Mark recalled for us the cure of Bartimaeus, the blind man who begged at the side of the road. But Jesus calls Bartimaeus as well. After receiving the gift of sight, Bartimaeus responded to Jesus’ call and follows Him. This week, we should listen to the call of Jesus in our lives, and pray for the courage to respond openly and appropriately to His voice.

It is almost impossible to believe that this week we will begin the month of November! This fall is passing quickly! This week we will celebrate two very special days, All Saints and All Souls. On Thursday, November 1st we will gather to celebrate the Holyday of All Saints. This is a day in which all Catholics are obligated to participate at Mass. Masses will be celebrated on Thursday at 7AM, 9AM, 12 Noon, and 7PM. On Friday, we will gather to remember all of our deceased brothers and sisters who now sleep in the peace of Christ. Masses will be celebrated at 7AM, 9AM, and 7PM. At the 7PM Mass we will remember in a particular way all of those whose funeral was celebrated in our church since last November. Following this Mass, there will be light refreshments served in the narthex of church. Please be sure to attend Mass on Thursday and make Friday a special day of remembrance for you and your family. Also, please submit the names of your beloved family members who have died so that we can remember them in prayer throughout the month of November.

On Wednesday many of our young people will go out for Trick or Treat. We pray that it will be a night filled with friends and fun for them. Unfortunately, no one will be home at the rectory this year to greet those out for the candy collection. Sorry!

The month of November is traditionally the month for the annual Saint Charles Borromeo Collection. This is a direct mailing Appeal. You should have received information through the Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia. We are scheduled to have a seminarian speak at all the Masses on the weekend of November 10-11. I have received notice from the seminary that our own Ben Speranza will be with us that weekend to speak on behalf of the seminary and its needs.

Also during November we will be participating in the CALLED BY NAME initiative developed by the Vocation Office of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. There will be more information on this in future bulletins.

I am grateful to all who have submitted their annual census information and donation. Please submit the census as soon as possible. Thank you!

May Saint Robert Bellarmine bless our journey in faith!

With prayers,

Monsignor Beisel

JUST A THOUGHT

It is hard to believe, but we are quickly approaching our Parent Conferences for students in Pre-K through grade 6! (Grades 7 & 8 are almost finished theirs.)

Looking at the time that parents and teachers spend in caring for our students, I am reminded of this thought:

"The greatest gift you can give someone is your TIME. Because when you dedicate your time, you are offering a part of your life that you will never get back."

For all of the TIME everyone shares with and for the good of our school community, know that I am deeply grateful!

FOCUS ON FAITH  THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Following the Lord Along the Way  (Mark 10:46-52) In this week’s Gospel, blind Bartimaeus sees in ways that the disciples cannot. He calls out to the Lord, recognizing the power of God in Jesus. Jesus, in turn, calls him. By faith the blind Bartimaeus is restored to physical sight. By faith he is enabled to follow Jesus on the way to Jerusalem and the cross. The true gift is that Bartimaeus has been called and chosen to pursue this way.

Do you ever ask of Jesus things that seem impossible?

How do you keep your relationship with Jesus healthy and strong?
