CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

(September to May)

Children, ages 3 to 9, have opportunity to participate in Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 11:30 am Mass. The children will hear the Word of God in a way that speaks to their age level and participate in an interactive homily.

"Loaves & Fishes"

The cupboard is located on Third Street between the Rectory steps and the Rectory Garden.

Please consider giving some non-perishable items to stock our Pantry. Suggested items: peanut butter, jelly, soups, tuna fish, cereal, crackers, etc. A small donation from many can go a long way. You can add non-perishable food directly to the pantry anytime you'd like! Thank you to all the SHJ Parishioners and Friends who regularly give to the food pantry. Take when you need, give when you can!

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

The mission of the Revival is “to renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. “The vision of this Eucharistic Revival overflows with hope for a life-changing experience of the Holy Eucharist especially of the Mass—in the lives of all Catholics. During this year, we are to renew our understanding and belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus makes Himself one with us when we receive His Body and Blood at Communion. Being one with Christ then we should make Him present by our Good Works. Therefore, we are called to live the Corporal Works of Mercy as we show charity to our Brothers and Sisters in Christ. “May my heart ever hunger for Thee and be nourished by Thee, whose sight the angels desire; may my innermost soul be filled by the sweetness of thy savor and ever thirst for Thee, the fount of life, the fount of wisdom and science, the fount of eternal life, the torrent of joy, the plenitude of the house of God.”

St Bonaventure

PRAYER FOR THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

*My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You!
I beg pardon for those who do not believe, nor adore,
nor hope, nor love You. (three times)
Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended. and, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus & Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners.
Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us.*

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

We see and hear and all but feel the tremendous power of towering rockets aimed for long travel in space when we watch TV coverage of a launch from Cape Canaveral. This has happened so often that our initial fascination with this has waned considerably. We now have a country-wide “yawn” when such launchings happen since we’ve seen so many. Yet the fearsome power displays remain.

The Pentecost event involves divine power. It marks a departure from the usual quiet ways of God, if only for the duration of that wind that filled the house where the timid Apostles were hiding out. The fiery tongues over their heads were another frightening feature. We know the story well. Even more memorable was that reversal of Babylon when suddenly, many languages were heard and understood by everyone in the crowd that gathered outside.

The Holy Spirit made His case dramatically for sure. The worldwide Church of Christ was being born. It did so with a wonderful kind of power, the miraculous kind.

But the quieter and more customary pattern for divine appearances reappears when Christ reappears to His chosen on Easter evening, recorded for us in John’s gospel excerpt for today. Jesus appears on to them suddenly but quietly, in a room with locked doors.

What an occasion for reprimand, were Jesus so inclined. He would have been entitled to same if He wanted to bring up their cowardly conduct 48 hours previous when they had mostly fled from Him. Young John was the sole and glorious exception who had stayed at the foot of the cross with the sorrowful Mother and her friends.

Instead, Jesus offers a gentle benediction; “Peace be with you.” The disciples went from rejection to rejoicing. A foretaste of the warm reception we can experience when we make a good sacramental confession. There follows that humble display of the scars left on His hands and side from the horror of Roman crucifixion. Then His commissioning of them to preach and forgive sins.

All this power in its gentle form continues to be poured out into our enduring Church. That should encourage us to fulfill our responsibility to evangelize in the 21st century. We live now in a world that doesn’t care much for the message of Jesus even though it’s the only one replete with the truth that sets one free. Modern man will not easily dismount from his high horse of accepting only scientific truth as real. We know that. We also know that it is not an easy mission. But it never has been, right from the beginning. Even Jesus had to face opposition. So, dare we hope for less? Yet we have the conviction of its power when we simply consider Jesus’ empty tomb and the definitive statement it makes about who wins in the end. Just don’t look for praise because you won’t often receive it.

One Sunday morning after Mass a woman came up to the pastor and thanked him for his encouraging homily that day. In response, the priest said, “Why, don’t thank me, thank the Lord.” She then replied, “Well, I thought of that, but it wasn’t quite that good Father.

God love you, and Happy Pentecost!

SPIRITUAL SUPPORT FOR ADDICTION: HOPE IN CHRIST

You are not alone! The Church desires to be close to her children who are struggling with addiction and to bring them the healing power of Jesus Christ's love. Many parishes around the Archdiocese are extending God's merciful and loving hand to those struggling with an addiction as well as their families and loved ones. The Hope in Christ: Spiritual Support for Addiction webpage provides a central location for Catholic resources, ongoing support, testimonies, and events that are happening throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to spiritually support you in your journey towards recovery. The Strength to Seek Help

All of us occasionally have problems in dealing with the demands and perplexities of daily life and our relationships. From time to time we can get "stuck" and have the need to sort out the challenges and choices of life. The physical and emotional exhaustion that has resulted from the Coronavirus pandemic has, for many, only added to this burden. These are the times when we can benefit from talking with a person who is trained in the skills of Pastoral Counseling and psychotherapy. Fr. Jim Paradis, O.S.A. is a certified pastoral counselor, and Br. Bob Thornton, O.S.A. is a clinical psychologist. Both draw on the resources of faith and psychology to help people burdened by personal, couple, and family problems. It is a sign of strength to face and seek professional guidance with such issues. To learn more, please call Fr. Jim Paradis, O.S.A., D.Min. at 215-546-8333, ext. 1400

DIOCESAN PRIESTHOOD
ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA
HEED THE CALL

QUO VADIS DAYS 2024!!

Quo Vadis Days, facilitated by the Philadelphia seminarians and sponsored by the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood, is a 4-day, 3-night summer camp for high school-aged men (incoming freshmen to graduated seniors) that seeks to ask the question: Where are you going? Through engaging talks, fun activities, daily Mass and prayer, and 4 days of fellowship, this camp is designed to encourage participants to ask themselves "Where am I going?" and listen to God's call to the particular vocation He has planned for them. Whether their vocation is to the priesthood, religious life, or marriage, young men are challenged first to become a disciple and then to discern their unique call. Don't miss out! Register today for this year's program!

DATES: Monday, June 24 – Thursday, June 27, 2024

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Wednesday, May 24, 2024

Recursos para ayudar a sanar, acompañar y florecer.

La Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia ha lanzado un sitio web con recursos para apoyar a quienes experimentan luchas de salud mental y a quienes los aman. El sitio web ofrece enlaces para encontrar médicos católicos, números de teléfono locales de respuesta a crisis y ministerios que pueden ayudar en la recuperación y la sanación. Además, hay herramientas para ayudar a las parroquias, escuelas e instituciones a cultivar una mayor conciencia y capacidad de respuesta ante estas realidades, sufridas por tantas personas.
