

SAINT PAUL CATHOLIC CHURCH

EAST NORRITON, PA
PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Baptized in Jesus, we the parishioners of St. Paul respond to the call of Christ. Loving God, praying with one another, especially through the Mass and the Sacraments. Proclaiming and sharing our Faith and Mission in Jesus Christ. Assisting those in need by seeing Christ present in each person. Creating unity through Christ by nourishing, empowering, and involving one another. Teaching the message of Christ to all by word and by daily personal witness. May God bless us, placing our efforts in hands greater than our own.

BAPTISMS are celebrated on the second and fourth Sunday of each month at 12:15 PM. Parents are required to attend the pre-Baptism class called Pre-Jordan sometime before the child is born. The god-parents' letters of eligibility should be brought to this class. After attending the class and presenting the eligibility letters a date can be set for the Baptism by calling the Rectory.

WEDDING arrangements must be made in person at the Rectory at least six months in advance. All couples must attend the archdiocesan sponsored Pre-Cana Program. For info: <http://phillycatholiclife.org/marriage-and-family/preparing-for-marriage>.

THE SICK and permanently homebound are encouraged to receive communion regularly at home. Eucharistic ministers are available, please contact Sr. Rosellen Bracken at 610.277.0827. Hospitalized parishioners are encouraged to receive the sacraments from the Catholic chaplains assigned to all hospitals. Urgent requests for anointing of the sick at home are accepted at anytime - call the Rectory.

TO BE A PARISHIONER one must be registered and living within the parish boundaries. Call the Rectory to make an appointment to register or see the pastor in church after Sunday Mass. We cannot issue letters of eligibility or references if one is not formally registered. Registered parishioners are requested to notify the Rectory if they are changing their address.

MORE BIBLE STUDY NEWS

Announcing a Biblical Pilgrimage of Christ's Passion...

This Lent, take a Biblical Pilgrimage through the last hours of Christ's life. No Greater Love, a video-based study filmed in the Holy Land, allows you to walk step-by-step with Christ from the Garden of Gethsemane to Calvary. It provides the Biblical and historical background for the scenes and symbols of Christ's passion. With others at Saint Paul's, you are sure to draw closer to Jesus than ever before.

The video series with discussion will be presented in the Rectory Meeting Room, Wednesdays March 13—April 10, 7:30 PM—9:00 PM. It is also possible to study on your own by viewing the videos online. The cost is $25 for the book, workbook, and online access; $15 for the book alone. Register by March 4 by contacting Lucy Boardway at 610-246-5535 or lucyboardway@gmail.com.

THIS WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20TH
THE CHURCH CELEBRATES THE FEAST OF
SAINTS FRANCISCO AND JACINTA MARTO,
THE TWO YOUNGEST NON-MARTYR SAINTS IN THE CHURCH

... A DAY TO PRAY THAT NO CHILD WILL BE DETERRED FROM GROWTH IN OUR FAITH BY THE WEAKNESS OF FAITH IN THE LIVES OF THOSE AROUND THEM... AND TO PRAY THAT ALL CHILDREN OF GOD, NO MATTER THEIR AGE, WILL GROW IN GREATER INTIMACY WITH JESUS THROUGH MARY AND THE CHURCH.

~ Our Lady's Apparitions at Fatima ~

The year 2019 marks the 102nd anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady to the three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, where the Blessed Mother appeared once each month from May 12 until October 13, 1917. The message of Fatima highlights many central truths and devotions of the Catholic faith: the Trinity, the Eucharist, penance, the Rosary and sacrifices for the conversion of sinners. There is special emphasis on the Immaculate Heart of Mary, which is a refuge of maternal love for us all and a sure path that leads us to God. In the end, Mary's Immaculate Heart will triumph because Mary is full of God's grace and is all pure. She has the heart of a mother who cares for her children and wishes them to be saved by her divine Son, Jesus.

The Fatima apparitions began with the tree apparitions of the Angel of Peace (also called the Angel of Portugal) in 1916 and extended beyond 1917 with subsequent apparitions given to Sister Lucia dos Santos in Pontevedra, Spain (1925—1927) and Tuy, Spain (1929).

Fatima is one of the most significant of all Marian apparitions. Along with Guadalupe (Dec. 12) and Lourdes (Feb. 11), it is one of three Marian apparitions honored with a feast day. In 2002, Pope St. John Paul II added the May 13 feast of Our Lady of Fatima to the general Roman calendar. May 13 was the day of the first Fatima apparition of 1917, and May 13, 1981, was the day when St. John Paul II survived an attempt on his life in St. Peter's Square. John Paul II credited his survival to the intervention of Our Lady of Fatima. The assassin's bullet that narrowly missed killing the pope now is inserted in a crown of Our Lady housed at the Fatima shrine. Fatima is also linked with the collapse of Russian communism more than 25 years ago. It is estimated that some 4—5 million people visit Fatima each year. Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us!

Saint Francisco Marto

June 11, 1908—April 4, 1919

Francisco was 9 years old at the time of the apparitions, during which he saw the Blessed Mother but could not hear what she was saying. Described in Lucia's memoirs as a musically gifted boy, pensive and easygoing, Francisco chose to "console Jesus for the sins of the world" in private prayer following the apparitions. He fell ill during an influenza outbreak just one year after the apparitions at Fatima, and he embraced his suffering, reciting the Rosary daily as instructed by Our Lady. He received his first holy Communion on his deathbed. In her memoirs, Sister Lucia wrote, "He flew away to heaven in the arms of our Heavenly Mother." He was beatified by Pope St. John Paul II in Fatima on May 12, 2000. At his beatification, our Holy Father exalted Francisco as the Consoler of the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus and held him up as an exemplar of devotion to Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament. With his sister, Jacinta, he was canonized a saint on May 13, 2017 by our present Holy Father, Pope Francis. This year is the centennial of his death. It is said that Our Lady came to him on his deathbed in his home in Aljustrel showing him a bright light. Witnesses said he smiled, closed his eyes and gently left our world for the company of Jesus and Mary whom he loved so much.

Saint Jacinta Marto

March 11, 1910—February 20, 1920

Jacinta was just 7 at the time of the apparitions. After seeing the vision of hell, the young girl dedicated herself to praying for the salvation of souls. She refused water during the hot summer. Like her brother, Francisco, Jacinta fell ill with influenza, but her suffering was even greater than his. She underwent surgery and several other minor procedures in order to try to save her life. Her pain was offered for the conversion of sinners. She suffered from pneumonia and tuberculosis, which forced her hospitalization, during which she was visited by the Blessed Mother three more times. The hospital chaplain refused to give her Communion, saying he would return the following day, but she died shortly after. She was beatified on the same day as her brother, May 13, 2000, by Pope St. John Paul II and canonized on May 13, 2017 by Pope Francis.

When St. John Paul II beatified Francisco and Jacinta, he directed that their feasts be observed on the same day, the date of little Jacinta's death, February 20th. In establishing their feast, he noted that often Francisco's feast day (April 4th) would occur during either Holy Week or Easter week (during which no other feasts are commemorated). To avoid this, he thought it most fitting to celebrate the little brother and sister shepherds' memorial on the same day.

Lucia dos Santos

March 28, 1907—February 13, 2005

The oldest of the three visionaries of Fatima, Lucia was the youngest of seven brothers and sisters. She received harsh criticism after telling family and friends about the visitations, so much so that she was reluctant to return to the Cova da Iria on July 13, 1917. The other seers convinced her to go back. Following the deaths of her cousins, at 14 years old, she was sent to the Dorothean Sisters of Villar and in 1928 became a sister of St. Dorothy. In 1946, she entered the convent of the Carmelite Sisters of Coimbra and was known as Sister Maria Lucia of the Immaculate Heart. She was visited by Mary on several more occasions. Following her death in 2005 at the age of 97, Pope Benedict XVI in 2008 waived the normal five-year waiting period before the start of a canonization cause.

The apparitions of the Blessed Mother of 1917 took place at the Cova da Iria (Cover of Peace) over a holm oak tree in the small village of Fatima, Portugal, a few miles from the children's home in Aljustrel. The village was named Fatima after a young Muslim woman captured by the Portuguese following a military victory over the Muslims in 1158. Fatima became a Catholic and married one of the Portuguese knights named Goncalo Hermingues. Unfortunately, she died soon after her wedding. Heartbroken, Goncalo eventually entered a monastery. He did, though, have a small chapel built over the site where his young bride's body was buried. This site came to be known as Fatima.

Today, there is not only the Chapel of the Apparitions at Fatima, but also the Basilica of Our Lady of the Rosary (completed in 1953), where the tombs of Saint Francisco, Saint Jacinta and Sister Lucia are located. There is also the larger and more modern Basilica of the Most Holy Trinity, which was completed in 2007.

THIS FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22ND

THE FEAST OF THE CHAIR OF SAINT PETER, APOSTLE

This feast of the Chair of Saint Peter dates back to the fourth century in Rome. It commemorates Peter's confession of faith: "You are the Messiah, The Son of God," (Matthew 16:16). It also recalls the promises of Jesus to Peter that his faith would be firm and that he would be a rock foundation that would survive the death of Jesus and all attempts to destroy what Jesus founded.

This promise of Jesus gives the Church boundless confidence in God as she carries out her mission of building up His kingdom. Peter grew in understanding of his authority and the unique grace given to him, as well as his responsibility to be a pillar of unity, faith and love. The Acts of the Apostles shows the beginning of an understanding of the Petrine charism in the new community of God's people.

Pope Saint Leo the Great said in a sermon: "Out of the whole world, one man, Peter, is chosen to preside at the calling of all nations, and to be set over all the apostles and all the fathers of the Church. Though there are in God's people many bishops and many shepherds, Peter is thus appointed to rule in his person those whom Christ also rules as original ruler. Beloved, how great and wonderful is this sharing in his power that God has in his goodness given to this man." (2nd Reading, Liturgy of the Hours).

St. Leo continued to explain that on the strong foundation of Peter's faith Jesus "will build up an enduring temple." We celebrate more today than just the primacy of St. Peter. The Church through Peter is entrusted with an awesome responsibility, namely, the salvation of all people. Firm and unerring faith, and an authoritative symbol of external strength and stability has marked the office of Peter and his successors.

Already in the second century a certain primacy of honor was given to the Bishop of Rome and the Church of Rome. An important witness is St. Irenaeus, who was bishop in Southern Gaul (France). "He had respect for the Church of Rome because of its more efficient leadership, all Churches must agree, that is to say, the faithful of all places, because in it the apostolic tradition has been preserved by the (faithful) of all places."

In the third through the fifth centuries a claim to primacy becomes more clear, without serious challenges to the claim, Pope Damasus I (364-384) and more strongly his successor, Siricius (384-399) claimed primacy over the other Churches in both doctrinal and disciplinary matters. With Pope St. Leo the Great (461-468) in the fifth century it becomes more precise by his action / intervention in the Christological controversies and by his teaching with respect to his office. His influential teaching determined the latter course of the papacy.

In the same sermon just mentioned, St. Leo said: "The authority vested in this power (the power to bind and loose) passed also to the other apostles, and the institution established by this decree has been continued in all the leaders of the Church. But it is not without good reason that what is bestowed on all is entrusted to one. For Peter received it separately in trust because he is the prototype set before all the rulers of the Church."

In honoring St. Peter today and praying for his intercession that "nothing divide or weaken our unity in faith and love." (Opening Prayer) we express our confidence and trust in the promise of Jesus that his Church will perdure and that the Petrine office will continue to serve all of God's people; that it will continue to be a blessing of the new covenant. The papacy, even with its human faults, has been and will be with God's support, the stable rock that will keep us "true to the faith" taught by Saint Peter and the apostles and their successors, and will "bring us to God's eternal kingdom." (Prayer over the Gifts).

TESTIMONIES OF BENEFICIARIES OF THE CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

I find it very endearing that my life has truly come full circle. As a newborn, I was adopted through Catholic Social Services of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Everything I have been through led me to where I am right now – principal of St. Katherine Day School.

The students at St. Katherine Day School range from ages 5—21 years old with an I.Q. below 70. The main campus, located in Wynnewood, offers a program for students with multiple impairments, as well as a life skills program, which includes functional academics. The high school program, located at Archbishop John Carroll High School, offers a life skills program including functional academics and vocational training. Our students are here because we provide a special education for them that a regular school can't provide. We have occupational therapists, physical therapists, personal care assistants and speech therapy. The parents choose this school so that we can provide these services to their children.

Many of our parents are single moms who have to work two jobs to afford tuition. The Catholic Charities Appeal helps offset the cost of tuition which is a huge help to our families. All 83 children who attend this school are supported by the CCA. The Appeal is really giving them hope, hope that their child can one day become an independent adult, and the best person they can be.

ST. KATHERINE DAY SCHOOL OPENED IN 1953. THEY WERE THE FIRST DAY SCHOOL FOR SPECIAL NEEDS STUDENTS IN THE UNITED STATES AND THE FIRST OF ITS KIND IN PHILADELPHIA. ST. KATHERINE DAY SCHOOL STRIVES TO MEET THE UNIQUE NEEDS OF A DIVERSE STUDENT POPULATION. THEY ARE THE ONLY ARCHDIOCESAN SCHOOL THAT PROVIDES A SCHOOL PROGRAM FOR STUDENTS WITH MULTIPLE IMPAIRMENTS.

My daughter Madeline is six and she identifies as deaf. She was diagnosed with hearing loss at birth. Maddy was at another school for a while, and then I found Archbishop Ryan Academy for the Deaf. Within a week, I saw a major difference in her. I just love it here; I see a huge change in her attitude, her speech, her language and just her everyday letters and reading.

Being a parent of a special needs child is so hard, especially making such important decisions. Being here is a reminder that I did make the right choice for my daughter.

The education at this school is the best, and knowing she is receiving a Catholic education is really important to me. Without the Catholic Charities Appeal, we wouldn't be able to afford this education for our daughter. As parents we want to give our children the best of everything, and all of the help really makes a difference.

Maddie is a firecracker—she loves art, music, dancing, reading and playing hockey. She loves Archbishop Ryan Academy for the Deaf. This school gives me hope that she will be able to succeed and do what she really wants to do in life.
