“Even amid these troubled times, the mystery of the Incarnation reminds us that God continually comes to encounter us. He is God-with-us, who walks along the often dusty paths of our lives. He knows our anxious longing for love and he calls us to joy. In the diversity and the uniqueness of each and every vocation, personal and ecclesial, there is a need to listen, discern and live this word that calls to us from on high and, while enabling us to develop our talents, makes us instruments of salvation in the world and guides us to full happiness.”

From Our Pastor . .

The hidden years. Often there is speculation to what happened in the life of Jesus from His birth up until he was 30 when He began His public ministry to save and redeem us. We have the visitation of the Magi which took place anywhere from Jesus' birth up until 2 years based on the killing of the Holy Innocents (Matthew 2). At 4 years old, Joseph, Mary and Jesus leave Egypt and go to Nazareth where Jesus is raised (Mt 2). At the age of 12, Jesus was lost by His parents who then found Him teaching and answering questions of the elders in the Temple in Jerusalem. We hear at the end of this story, "And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man" (Luke 2:52). Some speculation tries to fill in the gaps with stories not recorded in the Gospels. This type of speculation is to be avoided. A more appropriate approach to these hidden years is to see what the scriptures reveal and to understand what life was like in His day.

Jesus grew up in a faithful Jewish household that practiced the faith. As indicated in the story of Jesus being found in the Temple at 12, "Each year his parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom" (Lk 2:41-42). Honoring the Jewish Sabbath was a regular practice, a "custom." When Jesus proclaimed that He was the Messiah in Luke 4:16a, "He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day." Jesus was knowledgeable of Hebrew and a teacher. "He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written...Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him" (Lk 4:16b-20) They were waiting for Jesus to give a teaching because He was a rabbi/teacher. Yet the people listening were amazed, at Jesus' words claiming He was the Messiah when Jesus proclaimed "Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." (Lk 4:21) and asked "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" (Lk 4:22). Jesus was the son of a carpenter and probably didn't stand out up to this point as anyone special, let alone the Messiah that would save Israel.

How has God been working in our lives in a hidden way? What is the work that He wants to be doing through us daily?

Know you and your intentions are remembered in my prayers. How can I serve you? You can contact me by calling the Rectory at x111 or by e-mail at: frjeffstecz@gmail.com. Follow me on Twitter: @frjeffstecz.

DO YOU KNOW HOW TLC SERVES OUR PARISH?

The Lord's Cupboard (TLC) would like to remind parishioners that we provide short term meals for those in need for a variety of reasons.

Members of TLC prepare and deliver FREE healthy meals to your home. When preparing meals becomes challenging, we want to make sure everyone has a nutritious dinner option available. The number of meals and length of time is determined on an individual basis. Please call St. Agnes at 215-257-2128 x161 or call Tracey Pressley at 267-261-1315 and leave a message. We will return your call and discuss your needs. It is our pleasure to serve in the name of Jesus.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

“Ordinary Time” began for us this week. On the old calendar, the feast of the Presentation, still more than two weeks away, was the last day of the Christmas season. Sadly, Bethlehem is hardly a place of peace on earth these days. The ancient Christian community has been largely uprooted by political strife. The Church of the Nativity stands (barely) in remarkable disrepair and disorder in Manger Square. The roof is crumbling, the major doorways are blocked, the wiring is faulty, and the worship life is disrupted by quarrels among Eastern Christians.

The church was founded by the Emperor Constantine in 325, destroyed in a Samaritan revolt in 539, and rebuilt by the Emperor Justinian. When the area came under Muslim control in 638, the holiness of the church was respected, and in return Christians allowed Muslims to pray in the south aisle, a right still upheld. Earlier in that century, invading Persians were ordered to destroy all churches, but when they saw the magi carved over the doorway of the Church of the Nativity, they spared it out of respect for their ancestors who bore gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the same city. The Crusaders restored and redecored the church by the twelfth century, and it is their plan that survives. Down a few stone steps is a stone grotto with a silver star marking the place of Christ’s birth: when the star was stolen in 1847 it triggered an international crisis that exploded into the Crimean War.

Since 1852, the church has been shared by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Armenian Churches. The Greeks are in charge of the grotto, but don’t enjoy the best of friendships with the Armenians. Catholics have the care of the Chapel of the Manger, and avoid the squabbles by a separate entrance to the Franciscan monastery church of St. Catherine. Pray for peace in Bethlehem!
