August 19, 2018 – 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

To live eternally with Christ later, we need to take him in now as our nourishment. God sent Jesus to feed us. Do we accept him as the nourishment that brings eternal life? Are we willing to take in his word and his Body and Blood in the Eucharist and allow him to change us? The life that we are offered through Christ prepares us for the banquet in heaven. Practicing our faith means allowing Christ to live in us so that we will become who we are, the Body of Christ.

How can you practice your faith even more fully than you do now?

In today's second reading, St. Paul admonishes us: “watch carefully how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise, making the most of the opportunity.” What opportunity? The opportunity to discover the Lord's plan for your life! Is God calling you toward priesthood, the diaconate, or religious life? If so, please call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113, vocations@codow.org.)

Marriage Moments: Two questions to consider when you disagree with your beloved: 1) Tell me about what you are seeing that you think I might be missing. 2) What are you most concerned about or worried might happen?

Parenting Pointers: “Sometimes children can teach us deep truths. What deeper truth have you learned from your child this week?”

Catholic Forum: Listen to Catholic Forum every Sunday morning at 10:05a.m. on WDEL 101.7PM, 1150AM and www.wdel.com. Next Sunday, August 26th, Sister Gianna Maria, S.V., will discuss the work of her religious community, the Sisters of Life, and her calling to a religious vocation.

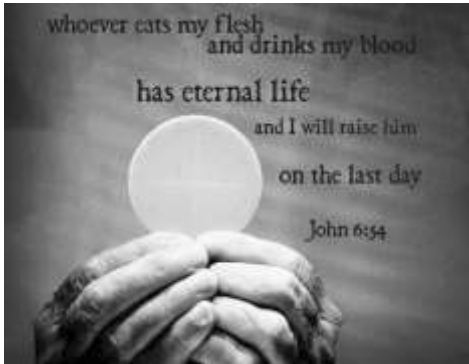

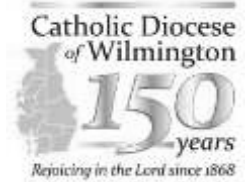

The Cathedral of Saint Peter needs our help. This weekend a special collection for the maintenance and preservation of the Cathedral of Saint Peter will be taken up in all parishes in our diocese. Please be as generous as you can. For more information about the Cathedral, please visit the Cathedral's website at www.cathedralofstpeter.com. Together, we can help assure that our Cathedral will remain a place of beauty and prayer during our Diocese's 150th Anniversary year and for generations to come.

Pray for the sick of the parish: Frances Grecco, Eugene Smallwood, Connie McElwee, Donald Yanick, Carmelita Kutch, George Dzarnik, Cindy Johnstone, Leslie Hampton, Anna Brown, Matthew Gray, Richard Woerner, Joseph DiMartino, Donna and Bill Thomas, Rev. Robert Hoban, Hayden Godwin, Gerard Pelletier, Pat Donohue, William Hoops, Tony NeCastro, Irene Suigne, Silva Lopez, Robert Evanousky, Mary Harrison, Meta Caserta, Scott Baker, Tyler Messinger, Ben Saffer, Joan Carilli, Joe Ellis, Len & Margaret Earl, Fred Hagerty, Helena Miller, Tommy Martone, Samuel Watts, Frank Yarrusso, Betsy Tong, Tony Arcaro, Anna McDonald, Christopher White, Maureen Monaghan, Darlene Bargelski, Donna Hagan, Dr. Marion Panyan, Kansas Collins, Frank Pecoraro, Mary Querey, Rosa Santos, Kay Jarman-McElwee, Gina Coburn, Helen Toto, Mary Allen VanAken, Angeline DiRienzo, Meghan Ward, Linda Murphy, Donna Cronk, John Haller, Elizabeth Keenan, Raul & Juanita Lopez, Mark Davis, Amy Hamm.

Upcoming Diocesan Event: Please mark your calendar for Saturday, November 3, 2018 – Convocation 150 in Ocean City, MD held at the Convention Center. This is an all-day event. The year 2018 marks the 150th Anniversary of the founding of the diocese of Wilmington. This day is an opportunity for each parish to gather their pastoral ministers and parish leaders, along with lay parishioners for a day of enrichment, fellowship and prayer. It is a day to celebrate, learn and pray together as a team from the community. More information will be available in the upcoming bulletins. If you would like to research some information you may visit cdow.org and hit the link for the Convocation 150. Please let us know if you would like to attend.

Sunday’s gospel from John teaches us the difference between a so-called Eucharist that is solitary and one that is solidarity. It is one thing to be a cluster of harmless individuals who happen to be sitting in the same room at the same time but who don’t see any necessary connection between eating the bread/drinking the cup and real living communion with the other members of the body of Christ.

Such a gathering is utterly safe and non-threatening because of each person’s dissociation from all the other individuals in the room. But it is quite another thing to be a kingdom-building Church that erupts with breathtaking force when touched by the same food, all together at once.

Perhaps this seems like an irrelevant distinction, but it isn’t. Jesus’ challenge to his followers in the gospel shows us why. Jesus is trying to tell us about the importance of eating his flesh and drinking his blood, the importance of encountering the living food. His words could have been, “Eat my body and drink my blood, and if you do, then life will be easier for you, or you’ll have the satisfaction of having obeyed my command.”

But Jesus’ words aren’t easy and satisfying. They are far more absolute. In fact, they are as absolute as can be: “Eat and drink this food and you will live, forever. Don’t eat this food and you will die; you will have no life in you, like your ancestors.” And then, just in case the point wasn’t clear enough, he says it all over again.

Rite of Christian Initiation

- ⋄ Are you someone who was baptized as a Catholic but never received the Sacraments of First Communion and/or Confirmation?
- ⋄ Are you someone who has a family member or a friend who is a Catholic and you are interested in becoming a Catholic yourself?
- ⋄ Are you someone who was baptized in a non-Catholic Christian faith and you are now interested in converting to the Catholic faith?
- ⋄ Are you someone who was never baptized in any Christian faith and now you would like to be a full member of the Catholic Church?

If you are an adult (18 years old or older) and you answered “yes” to any one of these questions, then the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is for you. The RCIA is a faith journey in which you deepen your relationship with God and make friendships with other candidates and team members through bible study, faith sharing and learning about the teachings of the Catholic Church. Adults are then fully initiated into the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. The RCIA for this coming year will begin in September and registration is required. If you are interested in participating in the RCIA for this coming year, beginning in September, please call the rectory office at 302-328-3431, or you can fill out the form below and mail it directly to the parish office at 801 North DuPont Boulevard, Wilmington Manor, New Castle, DE 19720.

What is charity?

It is silence – when your words hurt
It is patience - when you neighbor's curt
It is deafness – when scandal flows
It is thoughtfulness – for others' woes
It is promptness – when stern duty calls
It is courage – when misfortune falls

Remember the poor boxes at the exits of church.

If you are interested in becoming a parishioner of Our Lady of Fatima, please go to our website at www.olfnewcastle.com and download a census form listed on the front page of the website. We also have forms at the exit of church.
