STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Sharing Time, Talent and Treasure

Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve disciples; and in the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent?

Fifteenth Week in Ordinary Time

On the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time we read Mark's version of the call of the Twelve - sending them out in teams of two with his healing power and his authority over unclean spirits. He told them "to take nothing for the journey." God would take care of them.

This week, the first readings are from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah. The preaching of the first part of Isaiah contains powerful words about the infidelity of the people and the kings, God's sanctions so as to purify a people who would be faithful. On Saturday, we begin reading from the Book of the Prophet Micah.

In our readings from Matthew's Gospel we read more about the challenge of being a disciple of Jesus. He calls us to a bond with him that is even greater than the bonds of family. "Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." Jesus reproaches towns where he worked miracles and the people had not repented. Jesus thanks God that, though the wise and the learned remain in unbelief, the childlike are open to God's grace and believe. Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Taking on discipleship we will find that it is easy and we will find rest in him. When controversy comes up about his disciples' picking grain to eat on the Sabbath, Jesus give a startling response to the judgment of the Pharisees: "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." Jesus leaves town when the Pharisees want to kill him to fulfill the Prophet Isaiah: "He will not contend or cry out, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets. A bruised reed he will not break, a smoldering wick he will not quench, until he brings justice to victory."

On the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time we read from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah that God himself will shepherd his people and that a descendant of David will rule with wisdom and justice. Mark's Gospel paints a picture of Jesus trying to gather his disciples for a rest together but the people kept coming to them: "his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things."

Enviados en nombre de Dios para anunciar y sanar

Espacio de la fe

Enví a los discípulos de dos en dos

La liturgia nos dice que el enviado no siempre cuenta con la aprobación de sus oyentes, pero confía que el Señor quien lo envía y capacita para realizar su misión con firmeza Amasías, sacerdote de la casa de Dios y al servicio del rey Jeroboam, no quiere reconocer la predicación de denuncia de Amos, quiere quitarlo del medio, que huya al país de Judá, que no vuelva a profetizar en el santuario del rey y templo del reino.

Pablo "bendice" al padre que nos "ha bendecido" en Jesucristo con toda clase de bendiciones en el Espíritu. Él, a judíos y paganos, nos ha bendecido, elegido y determinado en Cristo desde antes de la fundación del mundo para ser santos e irreprochables, para ser hijos adoptivos y para que alabemos y glorifiquemos la gracia con que nos ha favorecido Marcos, por su parte, narra el envío de los doce por parte de Jesús. Var de Dos en dos con la misma autoridad que Él posee, con poder sobre los espíritus inmundos. Les envía no en los de que disponen para anunciar y realizar el Reino de Dios. Efectivamente, la misión de los doce tiene éxito y realizan aquellas cosas para las que fueron capacitados por Jesús proclaman el Evangelio, expulsan demonios y curan enfermos. Ellos son partícipes de la misma misión de Jesús.

(Mc 6,7-13 - XV Domingo do Tempo Comum)

Espaco da fe*ANÚNCIO DO EVANGELHO E O DINHEIRO

O que é que sucede quando os que pregam o Evangelho daí tiram algum benefício material? O que é que sucede quando o missionário não leva consigo apenas a palavra de Deus mas também tudo aquilo a que está afeiçoado?

A primeira leitura apresenta o exemplo de Amós e diz que o dinheiro constitui um sério perigo para a liberdade do profeta que anuncia a palavra de Deus. No Evangelho são apresentadas as disposições emanadas por Jesus. O Mestre quer evitar que surja a mínima suspeita de que o seu apóstolo age por amor dos bens deste mundo. A segunda leitura fala da gratidão do amor do Pai e é um convite a comunicar gratuitamente aos irmãos o dom recebido de Deus.

“Pobres, para ser livres” - poderia ser o lema que resume as condições exigidas por Jesus no Evangelho de hoje aos que são chamados a ser anunciadores da sua Palavra. Desapegados de tudo, devem assemelhar-se a Amós, de quem nos fala a primeira leitura, homem pobre mas independente, que pode dizer o que pensa, pois não tem nada a perder, nada a defender, não deve nada a ninguém. A sua pobreza dá-lhe mais liberdade. O dinheiro lança a suspeita sobre todo o testemunho. Quem anuncia gratuitamente uma mensagem é muito mais credível que quem, ao contrário, recebe uma recompensa.

Segundo o Evangelho de hoje, Jesus envia todos os apóstolos sem excluir ninguém. Isto significa que o anúncio do Evangelho não é uma tarefa reservada a alguns membros da comunidade. Todos os discípulos devem sentir a necessidade de partilhar com os outros o dom recebido. Jesus dota-os, ainda, do mesmo poder que Ele exerce: mandar nos espíritos impuros, que são todas as forças do mal, as forças que causam doenças e sentimentos maus.

À luz deste Evangelho, procuremos individualizar estes pesos inúteis de que o Mestre quer que nos libertemos. Procuremos perguntar-nos o que é que, com frequência, faz perder eficácia ao nosso trabalho apostólico? O que é que irrita, indis põe, afasta e desacredita as pessoas?
