Your continuous support and generosity to the Parish both financially and spiritually and all that it does for others is greatly appreciated.

THE CARDINAL'S STEWARDSHIP APPEAL 2018

Some of you may have received a recent letter from Cardinal Dolan as a "last chance" to participate in this year's Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal. This year, due to the generosity of an anonymous donor, we have a first-of-a-kind opportunity for our parishioners: the chance to double the impact of your donation to the Cardinal's Appeal. This donor will match – dollar for dollar – all new contributions made between now and October 31, up to $1 million – resulting in a $2 million contribution to the Appeal. The good news, not only will your gift be matched, our parish will benefit since the matched gift will count towards our parish's individual goal.

If the archdiocese is able to fully match this gift, we will reach our $20 million goal. Even during current troubling times like these, the needs of the archdiocese do not go away. Parishes still need support to operate, our Catholic schools and religious education programs and ministry groups still need to function to spread the Word of Jesus.

Thank you for your attention and any support you may be able to give to this matter.

A NOTE OF THANKS AND GRATITUDE FROM ST. THERESA'S CHURCH IN MUMBAI

Dear Fr. Mastrolia and Parishioners,

Greetings in Christ!

We, the Parishioners of St. Theresa's Church Kandivali West, Mumbai, Diocese of Kalyan are extremely thankful for your gracious and benevolent support extended to our Parish Priest Rev. Jacob Thomas during his summer ministry in the month of August 2018 through your donations for our Church Building Project.

By the Grace of God, we will soon be able to start the Compound Wall Construction and with the clearance of paper work we are hopeful to start the construction of our Church by February 2019.

Looking forward for your continued support to see us through our Dream Church Project.

Once again expressing our heart-felt thanks and gratitude.

Yours sincerely,

Fr. Jacob Thomas Troney Mathew Joseph Ulahannan

CONGRATULATIONS GAIL O'ROURKE, PARISH COUNCIL PRESIDENT!

It is my great honor and privilege to announce to the parish family that long-time parishioner and parish council president Gail O'Rourke has been selected to be inducted into the 2018 Class of the Westchester Senior Hall of Fame! This award is given annually to acknowledge and express gratitude to the most inspiring seniors in all of Westchester County and possibly in the nation. All the awardees this year have been nominated by fellow community members in order to honor their spirit of love for and service to their fellow citizens. Gail is certainly deserving of this recognition in light of her years of dedication to both the Nepera Park community and to St. Anthony Parish. Westchester County Executive George Latimer will present this award at a festive luncheon on Friday December 7th in the Grand Ballroom of the Westchester Marriott Hotel in Tarrytown beginning at 11:30 a.m. Following the luncheon and induction ceremony will be dancing to live music!

We would love to get a table or two together to honor Gail and to express our own gratitude and good wishes for her loving commitment to St. Anthony's over the years. If you would like to join in, please return the form below to the Rectory Office by November 11th along with a check for $65 made payable to "Westchester Public/Private Partnership." Let's get some great representation from friends and parishioners at St. Anthony's, and have a good time together as we honor a good friend!

____ Yes, I would like to reserve a seat at the Dec. 7th Luncheon to honor parishioner Gail O'Rourke at the Westchester Marriott!

____ Enclosed is $65 check/cash to "Westchester Public/Private Partnership."

THANK YOU

Dear Fr. Mastrolia,

Thank you and the Church of St. Anthony for your gift of $5,000 in support of this year's exciting Annual Dinner for Westchester Catholic Schools. Your generous giving will directly benefit students in the Central Westchester Catholic School Region with tuition assistance.

Formerly the Westchester Fund Breakfast, the Dinner is now co-hosted by the Catholic Education Advancement office and the regional boards of Central Westchester and Northern Westchester-Putnam counties. These two regional boards, in partnership with their donors and our steadfast supporters of the Westchester Breakfast, together, are now providing an academically rigorous, values-based education to over 4,100 students in 18 schools.

On behalf of the students and families we serve, thank you for your generous support and commitment to Catholic education.

Sincerely,
James F. Mooney
Chair

We want to use this column to give ourselves a much needed review of our religious knowledge. It will be an 'on-going' column and will follow the three year cycle of readings at Mass.

Reading I: Isaiah 53:10-11
Responsorial Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22
Reading II: Hebrews 4:14-16
Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

For the Love of God!

Often we think of God as a helper, someone who helps us to get the things we need. The great parent in the sky. Sunday's Responsorial Psalm is an example: "See, the eyes of the Lord are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, to deliver them from death."

This is a wonderful childlike attitude, and it is good. Suffering can stretch and widen the human soul, making it large enough to know God.

But sometimes the results are not. This Sunday James and John rush up to Jesus to say, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you" (Gospel). It a bit blunt, isn't it, like kids making demands. Jesus replies mildly, "What do you wish me to do for you?"

The awkward answer? "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Not a completely unreasonable request, I suppose, but rude. Moreover, the demand comes immediately after—and I mean it comes in the very next line—after he has predicted the passion:

The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and hand him over to the Gentiles who will mock him, spit upon him, scourge him, and put him to death. (Mark 10:33-34).

Hearing this, the disciples do what you and I often do: they change the subject. They did not want suffering but glory.

Alright. Jesus responds that they are ignorant. They too must drink the cup that he will drink, or in other words, must also undergo pain.

What kind of answer to trusting prayer is that? Maybe we should not pray for what we need?

No.

We know that Jesus himself begged God to take his cup of suffering away, and he used the term, "Abba" (a familiar form of "father") when he was asking (Mark 14:36).

And in another place:

During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with fervent cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission (Hebrews 5:7). He was heard?

So, God heard these fiery prayers and then sat idly by while the passion and cruel death went right along? Which raises The Terrible Question. Why does the trustworthy, loving, parental God permit suffering and catastrophe, even when he has understood in detail the prayers of those about to be afflicted?

We must seek an answer.

There is another kind of love. It is "being with." The worst things for us might not be loss, death and suffering, even though they are quite terrible. There is another loss that is worse. Loss of life's groundwork. The never-ending personal presence of God.

Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days.

Consider that suffering can, perhaps, in its best way, stretch and widen the human soul, making it large enough to know God, to live for others, and to let in that which is greater than death or life: love. Love stays even when life does not.

Parents of adult offspring know this. They try their best, but then do not rush in to stop tragedies to their offspring. But they are always there, always, accompanying, suffering.

As God does.
