Thank You Lisa Adams

Dear Friends,

It has been my pleasure to serve you for the last five years as your Director of Religious Education. I have joyously watched our students grow in their faith and develop personal relationships with our Savior, Jesus Christ.

I have had the pleasure of working closely with our dedicated Catechists, who continue to give of themselves week after week. They are an inspiration to our parish. I wish to thank them all, as well as the many great parishioners who have worked behind the scenes for years assisting Religious Education. You know who you are!

It is with a heavy heart that I resign my position at this time. As some of you know, I sadly lost my dad last September. My mom is now alone and in need of increased assistance.

I will remain immersed in our Religious Education Program support our new Director, Mrs. Theresa Dolan, and substituting for our catechists on Sundays.

I am happy to remain involved with our students and the growth of their faith. I look forward to seeing you all on Sundays and at our parish events.

Best wishes,
Lisa Adams

Welcome Deacon Douglas Adams

The answer is “yes”. Deacon Adams who begins his ministry at our parish this month is Lisa Adams’s husband. He is also the Superintendent of Schools in the Suffern School District.

That being said, let us all extend a very warm welcome to Deacon Adams who was recently approved for ministering to us by His Eminence, Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan.

In the letter approving his assignment to our Parish, Cardinal Dolan noted that Deacon Adams’s appointment here met with the approval of Fr. Matthew Fuery, pastor of Sacred Heart Church in Suffern, his former assignment, and our own Pastor, Fr. Emmanuel.

Cardinal Dolan said, “You will exercise the ministry, Deacon Adams, in accordance with the faculties [permissions] that were given to you on the occasion of your Ordination [as a Deacon], with special attentiveness to the guidance of [your] Pastor, Father Joseph A. Emmanuel.

The Cardinal went on, “As part of your diaconal ministry, you will proclaim the Word of God . . . You will lead your people in prayer and you will inspire those in your care to works of justice, compassion and holiness.”

Deacon Adams, I know I speak for all the people of the Parish of St. Joan of Arc-Our Lady of Mt. Carmel when I bid you a grateful welcome. Among your other duties will be baptisms, marriages, wake services and prayer services, as well as assisting in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. May God grant you much success.

God bless you and all of us. Rev. Joseph A. Emmanuel

Holy Rosary Society

Happy 123rd Anniversary to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church

Thank you for your continued support and love of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church. The enthusiastic response to our liturgies, social events, ministries, and outreach drives is a wonderful testament of how we love God and others.

Feast Day and Parish Picnic

Celebration of our anniversary and Feast Day will be held on Sunday, July 15th beginning with the 10 a.m. Festive Mass. The Mass will be followed by a church picnic including pulled pork, hamburgers, hotdogs, homemade salads, and homemade desserts. Children of all ages will enjoy lawn games and a Magic Show performed by The Great Charlini, genie/magician extraordinaire. There will be raffles galore!

About Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

The feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel dates back to the late 14th Century when, according to legend, a group of ascetics located at Mt. Carmel, which overlooks the Mediterranean Sea, established a Monastery which was dedicated to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in 1263. In the Old Testament (2 Kings 18:20-40) the prophet Elijah defeated the priests of the false God, Baal, by utterly humiliating them in a contest pitting Baal against the God of the Israelites at Mt. Carmel.

The early devotion to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is attributed to St. Simon Stock the “founder” of the Carmelite order which was officially recognized by the Church in 1274. It is said that St. Simon Stock received the Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel from Mary herself in an appearance she made to him.

Today the devotion to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is observed by Catholics throughout the world and numerous churches have been dedicated to her, including our own which, in 2020, will commemorate its 125th anniversary. With regard to the 123rd anniversary, our church is blessed with the dedication of a new altar by Cardinal Timothy Dolan.

The Parish of St. Joan of Arc – Our Lady of Mt. Carmel is, itself, blessed with wonderful, loyal and loving parishioners. Let us all pray to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel thanking her, and her Son, Jesus, for protecting us, inspiring us and blessing us with the freedom to honor Our Lady of Mt. Carmel for many more grace-filled years.

Thank you for your continued generosity and support.

Continue to monitor this page for updates on coming Holy Rosary Society events.
