From the Pastor's Desk

On Sunday, July 15th (immediately following the 12:10pm Mass), for those who are interested, we will be having the blessing and conferral of the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Registration for this Blessing and Conferral is required (we need to know how many Brown Scapulars to purchase).

The Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel is best understood in the context of our Roman Catholic Faith. The Brown Scapular offers us a rich spiritual tradition that honors Mary as the first and foremost of her Son's disciples. This Scapular is an outward sign of the protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary. While Christ alone has redeemed us, the Blessed Virgin Mary has always been seen by Catholics as a loving mother and protector. The Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel echoes the promise of Divine Revelation: "The one who holds out to the end is the one who will see salvation" (Matthew 24:13), and "Remain faithful unto death and I will give you the crown of life" (Revelation 2:10). The Brown Scapular is a reminder to its wearers of the saving grace which Christ gained upon the cross for all: "All you who have been baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves in Him" (Galatians 3:27). The Sacraments mediate saving Grace to the faithful. The sacramentals, including the Brown Scapular, do not mediate this saving Grace but prepare us to receive grace and dispose us to cooperate with it. The Church clearly teaches that all grace, including that of final perseverance, is won for us by the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Simply wearing the Brown Scapular does not confer the same result. It is important to remember that the Brown Scapular (or any religious medal, rosary or blessing) is not a good luck charm which is going to protect a person from harm. True devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary consists in three things: Veneration, Confidence and Love. By simply wearing the Brown Scapular we can tell her every moment of the day that we trust in her protection. The Blessed Mother assigned certain conditions which must be fulfilled in wearing the Brown Scapular: 1) it must be worn continuously, 2) we must observe chastity according to one's state in life (married or single), and 3) pray the Rosary every day or substitute some other good work.

To register please call the Rectory office. We will need your name, address and phone number. No one, on the day itself, will be able to join in, unless they are previously registered.

Registration for Religious Education Classes For Children

It is important that every child, in our Parish, have a firm and complete knowledge, of the Roman Catholic Faith. The Blessed Sacrament Religious Education Program is currently accepting new and re-registrations for students, from Kindergarten through 8th Grade for the school year 2018-2019. You can find registration forms in the back of the Church or for more information, please call the Religious Education Office at (914) 235-7311, Monday through Thursday, from 10:00am to 2:00pm. Registration can take place at the Religious Education Office or at the Rectory. Payment is due at the time of registration. Please make sure that your child is registered before classes start in September. Se Habla Espanol.

El Divino Niño Mass

The "El Divino Niño" Procession and Mass will take place on Thursday, July 12th. The Procession starts at 6:00pm and the Mass at 7:30pm. The Divino Niño, is a 20th-century religious wooden statue of the child Jesus originating from Bogota, Colombia. The statue with arms stretched out wide and wearing a traditional pink robe or tunic has an inscription "Yo reinaré" ("I will reign") at its base. The statue's image and religious devotion began with a Salesian priest named Father Giovanni Rizzo, from Arenzano, Italy. His bishop once assigned him to an impoverished parish in Bogotá, Colombia. In 1914, Father Rizzo and his Salesian priestly companions began to build a church in Barranquilla, Colombia. Father Rizzo is believed to have had a mystical vision of the child Jesus in a standing posture while beckoning out his arms. The boy in the vision spoke "Take me with you, I want to accompany you." In 1942, Father Rizzo discovered a child Jesus statue in a nearby shop. In the shop, was the statue by an anonymous Italian sculptor, who fashioned a likeness of the child Jesus, as in Father Rizzo's vision. He brought it to his new parish, where he began to preach about the favors the Christ Child does for those who have faith and who help the poor. Mother Angelica also had a great devotion to this image and she is reported to have had a mystical experience of the Child Jesus. Even though this Mass will be in Spanish, all are invited to attend.

Formed

There is a great resource that is being offered by the Archdiocese to every parishioner, in every parish. It is called "Formed" and there is no cost to you. You can watch movies, read books, look at shows and learn about the faith at the same time. All you have to do is go to the website: www.formed.org. Once you have signed up, you are able to access wonderful programming. You will be asked for the parish code for Blessed Sacrament. It is: WGFJ7N (the code is case sensitive).

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Are you an adult, who has been attending Blessed Sacrament Church, but are not a Roman Catholic? Do you know a family member, neighbor or friend who has expressed a desire to become a Roman Catholic but does not know how to go about it? Are you a person who was Baptized in the Roman Catholic Church but never received any other Sacrament? Then, the R.C.I.A. (the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is for you and for them. What is the R.C.I.A.? It is a series of instruction that begin in late September and end with the reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil (the night before Easter Sunday). Who can join the R.C.I.A.? Any person who has not been baptized, anyone baptized a Roman Catholic but never received any other Sacrament, or anyone who was baptized into another religion but now desires to be a Roman Catholic. When are the classes held? They are held on Saturday mornings and will last for just over one hour. Of course, attendance at Sunday Mass will also be a requirement for those who desire to become a Roman Catholic. What do you need to do in order to join this class? Please contact Father Luciano. Why not learn about the Faith and be Baptized/Received or complete your Sacraments in the Roman Catholic Church. It is very important that those who desire to become Roman Catholic, or complete their sacraments, are already attending Church on a weekly basis.

Music Notes for this Weekend

By Dr. John Wolfe, Organist and Music Director

Prelude: Prelude au docteur Jean Perrot: Andante
By Gaston Litaize (1909-1991)

Opening Hymn: number 717

The Great Forerunner of the Morn

Offertory Hymn: number 600

I Want to Walk as a Child of Light

Communion Hymn: number 327

I Received the Living God

Closing Hymn: number 22

Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

Postlude: Prelude a Jeanne Marguillard: Allegro
By Gaston Litaize (1909-1991)

Over the course of the twentieth century the world's musical landscape transformed and diversified perhaps more profoundly than it had in the past thousand years. Some composers renounced everything that had come before; others posited atonality as the unavoidable next step in the evolution of the European tradition. Another option was to blend the many coexisting currents into a cohesive fusion, and this was the approach taken by composer Gaston Litaize. Litaize's music represents a bridge between the past and present, a midpoint in the long lineage of French spiritual composers that continues to this day. Parts of the 24 Liturgical Preludes are backwards-looking or "Neo-Classical," offering homage to the Baroque past. At other points the music is thoroughly modern: the jaunty rhythms may reflect French musicians' fascination with Jazz in the early decades of the century. Litaize's willingness to insert quotations from every idiom into music for the church models an open-mindedness that we continue to cherish in our cultural life today.

Think About It

Think about joining the choir, when choir rehearsals once again resume in September. You don't have to read music, or even have the best voice. All you need to do is to love to sing. We will do the rest. We hear great singers in the congregation. What better way to praise, honor and worship God than to offer Him your voice in song. Think about it!

Renew + Rebuild

It is so important that those who made pledges fulfill them. Because of the planned work we have been warning prospective brides, who have called, that at some point during 2018 there will be scaffolding in the Church. Where? We can't say. When? We don't know. It's going to be that type of project. If you have not yet given a gift or made a pledge, please speak to Father Luciano. In order to make the painting of the Church, the cleaning of the ceiling, and so many other projects a reality and so make our church beautiful, we need your help.

Prayer for Vocations

This prayer can be said by a single person or with several people.

Leader: Let us ask God to give worthy Priests, Brothers and Sisters, to His Holy Church.

Others: O God, we earnestly beseech Thee to bless this archdiocese with many priests, brothers and sisters, who will love Thee with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Thy Church and to make Thee known and loved.

Leader: Bless our families, bless our children.

Others: Choose from our homes those who are needed for Thy work.

Leader: Mary, Queen of the clergy!

Others: Pray for us. Pray for our priests and religious. Obtain for us many more.

Spotlight on Vocations

The Order of Saint Dominic (officially, the Order of Preachers, commonly referred to as Dominicans) was founded in 1216. This Dominican Order is comprised of various provinces of men and women religious. Here, on the East Coast, you will find the Dominican Friars of the Saint Joseph Province. These Friars (priests and brothers) have as their mission to preach, teach and serve. They live in community, have a common prayer life, wear the Dominican habit and so much more. Father Benedict Croell, O.P. is the vocation director. He can be reached at (800) 529-1205. The Province web site is: OPEast.org

Welcome into the Catholic Church

We welcome into the Roman Catholic Church, those infants and young children, who have been baptized here recently at Blessed Sacrament. May God's many blessings and graces be with them as they grow in wisdom and strength.

Do you know the Church where you were baptized? It is amazing how many phone calls we receive of people who think they were baptized here but were actually baptized somewhere else.

Congratulations

We congratulate those couples, who received the Sacrament of Marriage, here at Blessed Sacrament recently. Our best wishes goes with them as they have now entered the married life and may God bless them each and every day.

Also, we pray for those couples who are celebrating wedding anniversaries this month. May God continue to strengthen your marriage vows and enlighten you with His grace.

In Memoriam

Our hearts go out to those who have lost loved ones. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And may perpetual light shine upon them. The following are those, who were recently buried, from Blessed Sacrament Church. May God strength their families in this time of trial.

Let us keep in our prayers all those who are buried in our Parish cemetery, Holy Sepulchre.

We Pray

We pray for those who are: ill, awaiting (or recovering from) surgery, homeless, unemployed or underemployed, struggling with finances, struggling with addictions or enduring family problems. May God give them strength, comfort and healing.

Something to think about today

Saint Josemaria Escriva, said:

"Don't judge without having heard both sides. Even persons who think themselves virtuous very easily forget this elementary rule of prudence."

"Compromise is a word found only in the vocabulary of those who have no will to fight."

"You're bored? That's because you keep your senses awake and your soul asleep."

"If you have so many defects, why are you surprised to find defects in others?"
