Join the fun of March Madness with a HoopsMania ticket before sales end on March 17!

Just like Football Mania, you will receive $20 worth of music downloads with your ticket.

Here's how HoopsMania works:

- There is no work on your part! You will not need to pick teams, winners, or brackets.
- There are 64 teams in the college basketball tournament, divided into 4 regions of 16 teams - East, South, Midwest and West. Each region ranks the teams 1-16, with 1 being the highest rank.
- You will receive 8 teams on your card, each one ranked from 1-8, so that statistics are on your side! The 8 teams are made up of 2 from East; 2 from South; 2 from Midwest; and 2 from West. The College Basketball Association will release brackets and your teams will line up with the brackets. Check out the cards in the church lobby to see a visual of how it works.
- Next, since all the work has been done for you, simply watch the games and root for the teams on your card. You will receive the points that your teams score in each round played. If they win & advance, you'll get another round of points from them. If they lose, you won't be able to get any more points from that team.
- At the end of the tournament, points are totaled and winners are determined by the 70 highest scoring cards & the 5 lowest cards.
- To follow along, go to the Charitymania website or download the app on your phone. You will need to enter the ID Number found on your HoopsMania Card.

Get your tickets at the scrip table before and after each Mass by March 17th! Thank you for your support!

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT - MARCH 10, 2024

Gospel Reflection - John 3:14-21

Source: <https://www.loyolapress.com/catholic-resources/liturgical-year/sunday-connection/fourth-sunday-of-lent-cycle-b-sunday-connection/>

For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” - John 3:16

Readings for the Fourth Sunday of Lent:

First Reading:

2 Chronicles 36:14-16,19-23

The causes for the Israelites' captivity in Babylon are described.

Responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 137:1-2,3,4-5,6

Psalm 137 is a lament from those in exile for the loss of Jerusalem.

Second Reading:

Ephesians 2:4-10

In grace we have been saved, so that we may do the work of the Lord.

Gospel Reading:

John 3:14-21

Jesus tells Nicodemus that the Son of Man will be raised up so that those who believe in him will have eternal life.

Background on the Gospel Reading:

The fourth Sunday of Lent is sometimes called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means “rejoice.” Traditionally, Sundays are named after the first word of the liturgy’s opening antiphon. On this Sunday, the antiphon is taken from the book of the Prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 66:10-11). Even as we observe our Lenten sacrifices, we rejoice in anticipation of the joy that will be ours at Easter.

Today’s Gospel reading is taken from John’s Gospel. It consists of two parts. The first part is the final sentence of Jesus’ reply to Nicodemus, the Pharisee who approached Jesus at night. Nicodemus acknowledged Jesus as someone who had come from God and seemed to want to be a follower of Jesus. Jesus greeted Nicodemus with the observation that one must be born from above to see the Kingdom of God. The dialogue between Jesus and Nicodemus that followed was about the meaning of this phrase. Nicodemus misunderstood Jesus at every point, but there was no animosity in the questions he posed to Jesus.

In the part of the conversation with Nicodemus in today’s Gospel, Jesus referred to an incident reported in the Old Testament. When the Israelites grumbled against the Lord during their sojourn in the desert, God sent venomous serpents to punish them for their complaints. The Israelites repented and asked Moses to pray for them. The Lord heard Moses’ prayer and instructed him to make a bronze serpent and mount it on a pole. All who had been bitten by a serpent and then looked upon the bronze serpent were cured. By recalling this story, Jesus alludes to the salvation that would be accomplished through his death and Resurrection.

The second part of today’s Gospel is a theological reflection on Jesus’ words to Nicodemus. The Gospel of John is known for this kind of reflection offered within the narrative. The words of the Evangelist are in continuity with the words of the prologue to John’s Gospel. In these reflections, John elaborates on a number of themes that are found in his Gospel: light and darkness, belief and unbelief, good and evil, salvation and condemnation.

In John’s reflection, we find an observation about human sinfulness. Jesus is the light that has come into the world, but people preferred the darkness. We wish to keep our sins hidden, even from God. Jesus has come into the world to reveal our sins so that they may be forgiven. This is the Good News; it is the reason for our rejoicing in this season of Lent and throughout our lives.

Let us give thanks that by his cross and resurrection, Jesus has forgiven us of our sins. Let us give thanks that everyone who believes in Jesus might not perish, but will instead have eternal life with God. This is the true hope of Easter. Amen!
