Unless a grain of wheat

falls into the earth
and dies, it remains
just a single grain;
but if it dies,
it bears much fruit.

March 22 The Fire of His Love: Prayer and the Life of the Spirit
(El fuego de su amor: la oración y la vida del espíritu)

Last Saturday night I was in the supermarket with my niece. As the check out lane was crowded, she suggested we go through the automated lane. As we drew closer, I noticed an older woman who was crying and helpless. She had lost her patience and composure with the machine. A young lady from another machine came to assist but she grew more frustrated, throwing things into the cart proclaiming she did not want any of these and just wanted to get out of the store. An employee came to calm her down with the assurance that together they could do this. She reluctantly accepted her help but the heaving breathing and tears continued. My heart broke for this woman. How could she come so unglued? Then, I remembered that I had purchased a Google Wifi Mesh for the parish house with the instructions for a simple, fool-proof installation. After numerous attempts to setup the devices and two different one hour calls to the support line, the three routers remain inactive. Technology can be challenging for many especially those of us a bit advanced in years. It heightens our fears, highlights a lack of skill, reminds us of our impatience and displeasure over our weaknesses and imperfections. I walked out of the supermarket thinking life can be tough at times and it may just be the little things that nag at us most. If we can all get a little more patient, a lot more other-centered and charitable, not to mention forgiving, we can certainly ease another's burdens and lighten our own on the way. Most importantly, we can honor Christ's request, "Come to me all who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest. Take up my yoke and learn from me for I am humble and gentle of heart."

Please sign up to play a role in the Via Crucis this Good Friday. Sign up sheets are on the table in the back of the church. Por favor regístrate para participar en el Via Crucis este Viernes Santo. Las hojas de la firma están sobre la mesa detrás de la iglesia.

Your presence and prayerful support will be greatly appreciated.
