A Message From Your Pastor

As we begin our Lenten journey, it is good that we reflect on the true meaning of this season. Lived well, Lent can convert the heart and transform a person's life. That's the whole point of the season- to ready us for the miracle of Easter. Lent is a time for self-examination, repentance and reconciliation. Too often, we see Lent in a very negative way, but these weeks are an opportunity to purify our hearts. The joy in Lent comes from our confidence in the resurrection of a Savior who delivered us from sin and restored us to life.

Of course, unless we understand our own sinfulness, unless we understand the urgency of repentance and reconciliation, the Cross makes no sense and the Resurrection makes no sense. The Easter joy that we prepare for is the joy of new life. Unless we believe this, our prayer, fasting and almsgiving are a waste of time. Lent is meant to be an opportunity and a grace, not a burden.

I encourage you to use the Lenten Daily Reflection Booklet that we gave to each family as a gift from the parish (there may still be extra copies at the church doors) to reflect on the Scripture Readings each day and to make an effort to join us for our Lenten Evening of Reflection next Monday, February 26th (see the insert in today's bulletin). These are just some of the ways that we can use these forty days to be renewed.

May we use these weeks of Lent to cleanse and ready our hearts so we can receive Jesus Christ this Easter and share in his life.

In Christ,
Msgr. Emery

Lenten Regulations

1. The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the “paschal fast” to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only (1) full meal is permitted, and (2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity.

Those between the age of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast

On a day of abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

2. The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and Abstinence “substantially”, or as a whole, is a serious obligation.

3. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

4. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, February 18, 2018 to The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, May 27, 2018.

LENT: A TIME FOR CONVERSION

Stations of the Cross: Every Friday at 7:30pm

Bible & Faith Study: Every Saturday at 9:00am in Chapel

Holy Hour: Every Wednesday at 7:00 pm in the Upper Church

Each Family has received a Lenten Reflection Booklet as a gift from the parish. Extra copies are at the doors of the church. This little booklet can be used to spend just a few minutes each day during Lent to reflect on this holy season.

Monday, February 26th (7:30pm)- Lenten Evening of Reflection

Monday, March 19th (7:30pm)- Lenten Penance Service

Think About it

Recently, in the January 15, 2018 issue of Time Magazine, reflecting on ‘Black History Month, there is an interesting article by the legendary civil rights leader, John Lewis; who espouses a belief in hope, progress and peace. In his lifetime, he says: “I’VE SEEN UNBELIEVABLE CHANGES during the past 50 or 60 years. When people say, “Nothing has changed, “I feel like saying, “Come and walk in my shoes.” I truly believe that if there is faith, hope and determination, we can continue to lay progress and create an American community at peace with ourselves. The next generation will help us get there.”

We are now at the start of Lenten season, which is a period that affords us all the opportunity to sacrifice: fast, pray, reflect, and reconnect faithfully with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ by attempting to walk in His shoes. In so doing, we can pray for the guidance in helping our needy sisters and brothers along the way. And as Martin Luther King Jr. said “The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice.” Lynette Wilson, for the Peace and Justice Committee.

Reflections on Catechism

538 The Gospels speak of a time of solitude for Jesus in the desert immediately after his baptism by John. Driven by the Spirit into the desert, Jesus remains there for forty days without eating; he lives among wild beasts, and angels minister to him. At the end of this time Satan tempts him three times, seeking to compromise his filial attitude toward God. Jesus rebuffs these attacks, which recapitulate the temptations of Adam in Paradise and of Israel in the desert, and the devil leaves him "until an opportune time." Mary Jane Tannen

Stewardship Reflection

"After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God...." - Mark 1:14

Do you ever think about how difficult it must have been for Jesus to come into Galilee, knowing that John had just been arrested for teaching the same message that Jesus was proclaiming. It must have taken great love and trust for Jesus to do what the Father had sent Him here on earth to do. In the same way, following a life of stewardship takes great love and trust from us. We must be willing to surrender completely to God, trusting that God will always give us all that we need to fulfill His plan for us.

-That we may place our lives in God's hands and have the strength to carry out His unique plan for each us.

Come Adore the Lord

God is always with us, but so often we are not with God. If only for a few minutes, visit Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament exposed on the altar in the chapel downstairs every Monday and Friday from 12:30 till 3:00 pm. At 3pm, the hour of Christ's total abandonment and death on the cross for us we offer Him our love by praying the powerful 10 minute long Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. Let us put our faith into action!

March Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN) Host Week

Please mark your calendar for the next Interfaith Hospitality Network Host Week: March 11 to 18. We need volunteers in a variety of ways this week: preparing meals, shopping for the week, setting up and breaking down the living space, spending time with the families, staying overnight, and helping with laundry. Look for IHN sign-up sheets in the church vestibule. For more information about volunteering, please contact Anna Nelson at: annanelson202@gmail.com or 973-378-3136 or Liz Petroccia at: lizpetroccia@msn.com or 973-763-4053.

Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Our Lady of Sorrows Parish, are a community of Catholic believers and disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ. Brought together in Baptism and nourished by the Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith, we strive, with the help of divine grace, to live the Gospel joyfully, faithfully and sacramentally everyday.

Believing fully in God’s divine power and provision, we embrace our mission as disciples to proclaim to all nations the good news that Jesus Christ is Lord and Savior, knowing that salvation is for everyone and that in the Holy Spirit all things find unity and harmony. We seek to make the Church “a place of mercy freely given, where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven and encouraged to live the good life of the Gospel” (Joy of the Gospel).

Under the patronage of Our Lady of Sorrows, we seek to faithfully serve the Lord through serving others in our community and beyond and strive to do this with humility as we believe that everything we do is for the glory of God.
