Margarita Moran
April 9, 1958 - March 8, 2018

Margarita (Aponte) Moran was reunited with her parents Josefa and Domingo Aponte and her brothers Jose and Alphonso Aponte in Eternal Heaven on March 8, 2018.

We are confident her work for the Lord was complete and she is receiving her rewards.

Margarita was born on April 9, 1958 in New York City. She graduated from Vineland High School and Glassboro State College (Rowan College).

She also received a degree from Monroe College in business administration.

She met her soul mate Rafael Moran in 1977 and later married. Together they raised their son Chief Jayson Rene Moran, US Coast Guard (Sarina).

She was always proud of his accomplishments but not greater than the joy he gave them with their grandchildren: Ayana, Ayanna, Liani and Jayson Jr.

Margarita will be missed by many.

Margarita leaves behind a large family consisting of her loving siblings Rafael Aponte (Felipa), Enilda Santos (Carlos), Justina Aponte, Domingo Aponte Jr, Jay Aponte(Sonia), many nieces, nephews and cousins. Together we will cherish her memories and carry on her legacy of charity.

She will also be remembered by countless brothers and sisters in Christ throughout the Camden Diocese including her beloved staff at Divine Mercy Parish.

During her earlier career years, Margarita was a National Sales Executive for a major pharmaceutical company.

However, Margarita found her true calling working in her parish community.

She completed a certification in Parish Life Ministries at the College of Saint Elizabeth.

The first director of Pope John Paul II Retreat Center, Margarita took on the roll as her personal ministry.

She recruited many hands to turn it into a full service retreat facility for those in search of personal reflection and God's words.

Later, she humbly took on the role of Business Administrator for the parish.

Margarita's love for God was evident in everything she did.

Margarita will be remembered for her dedication and tireless work in creating a vibrant community for her beloved Divine Mercy Parish.

She brought many closer to God with her smile, hugs and song. Bob Marley, Three Little Birds "Every little thing is gonna be alright" was her go to song in times of trouble.

Her strength to battle cancer countless times never ceased to amaze all who adored her. She was often the source of strength for her loved ones.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at Divine Mercy Parish on Wednesday March 14, 2018.

In lieu of flowers please consider making donations to the Pope John Paul Retreat Center Memorial fund in her name, 23 W. Chestnut Ave. Vineland, NJ 08360. We plan to dedicate in her name the fountain in the backyard of the Retreat Center.

Rest in peace dear Margarita!

Margarita Moran
Abril 9, 1958 - Marzo 8, 2018

Margarita (Aponte) Moran se reunió con sus padres Josefa y Domingo Aponte y sus hermanos José y Alfonso Aponte en la Gloria Eterna el 8 de marzo del 2018.

Estamos seguros de que su trabajo para el Señor terminó, y que ella está recibiendo ahora sus recompensas. Margarita nació el 9 de abril de 1958 en la ciudad de Nueva York. Se graduó de Vineland High School y Glassboro State College (Universidad de Rowan).

También recibió un postgrado en la Universidad de Monroe en Administración de Empresas.

Conoció a su alma gemela Rafael Moran en 1977 y luego se casó con él. Juntos criaron a su hijo Jayson Rene Moran, que es un Guardacostas de la Marina de los Estados Unidos (Sarina).

Margarita siempre estuvo orgullosa de sus logros, pero no más que la alegría que le dieron sus nietos: Ayana, Ayanna, Liani y Jayson Jr.

Margarita será extrañada por muchos.

Margarita dejó atrás una gran familia formada por sus amorosos hermanos Rafael Aponte (Felipa), Enilda Santos (Carlos), Justina Aponte, Domingo Aponte Jr, Jay Aponte (Sonia), además de muchas sobrinas, sobrinos y primos.

Juntos cuidaremos de su memoria y continuaremos con su legado de caridad.

Ella también será recordada por innumerables hermanos y hermanas en Cristo a lo largo de la Diócesis de Camden, incluyendo a su amado equipo de trabajo en nuestra parroquia de la Divina Misericordia.

Durante sus primeros años de carrera, Margarita fue Ejecutiva Nacional de Ventas de una importante compañía farmacéutica.

Sin embargo, Margarita encontró su verdadera vocación trabajando en su comunidad parroquial.

Ella completó una certificación en Ministerios De La Vida Parroquial en la Universidad de Santa Elizabeth.

Ella fue la primera directora de la Casa de Retiros Juan Pablo II, y Margarita tomó ese rol como su ministerio personal.

Ella reclutó muchas manos para llegar a convertirlo en una casa de retiros de servicio completo para aquellos en busca de reflexión personal y de la Palabra de Dios.

Más tarde, ella asumió humildemente el rol de Administradora de Negocios de la parroquia completa.

El amor de Margarita para Dios fue evidente en todo lo que ella hizo.

Margarita será recordada por su dedicación y trabajo incansable en la creación de una comunidad vibrante para su amada Parroquia de la Divina Misericordia.

Ella trajo a muchos más cerca de Dios con su sonrisa, abrazos y canción. Bob Marley, Three Little Birds "Cada pequeña cosa va a estar bien" fue su canto en tiempos de problemas.

Su fuerza para luchar contra el cáncer innumerables veces nunca dejó de sorprender a todos los que la adorábamos. A menudo era la fuente de fortaleza para sus seres queridos.

Se celebró su Misa Funeral en la Parroquia de la Divina Misericordia el miércoles 14 de marzo de 2018.

Y se ha pedido que en lugar de flores, por favor considere hacer donaciones al fondo Memorial del Centro de Retiros Papa Juan Pablo en su nombre, 23 W. Chestnut Ave. Vineland, NJ 08360. Pensamos dedicar la fuente en el jardín de la casa de Retiro a su nombre.

¡Descansa en paz querida Margarita!
