Statement of Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., Archbishop of Newark, on the Events of last Weekend in Charlottesville, Virginia

The one and a half million Catholic men, women and children of the Archdiocese of Newark – people who trace their roots to every continent of the world and represent every race and ethnicity – view with horror the recent events in Charlottesville and condemn the racism and vicious rhetoric that contributed to this tragic moment in our nation’s history. We stand in prayer and solidarity with all people of good will and we witness to our Christian calling to “love your enemies...that you may be children of your heavenly Father.” (Matthew 5: 44 - 45)

In the wake of her daughter’s brutal death, the mother of Heather Heyer told reporters in Charlottesville that “hate cannot fix the world. Hate only creates more hate.” We join her in rejecting the brutality that killed her child, contributed to the deaths of two Virginia State Troopers and left dozens injured. While we denounce such violence, we also call for a thorough examination of racial bigotry and intolerance in the light of reason and love. “For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed” (John 3: 20). Dark words and deeds must be met with light and love.

Scripture Reflection

Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus encountered a Canaanite woman who begged Him for help. Jesus seemed to refuse her request, saying that He had come only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. But she persisted, and Jesus granted her request because of her great faith.

Of what do I imagine great faith would consist?

The Canaanite woman was persistent. Where in my spiritual life do I need persistence?

The woman says to Jesus, Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! Reflect on this in prayer.
