It’s called STRIVE and it’s an ANONYMOUS 21-day challenge that men all around the world are taking to break free from pornography.

Updated Planning for Holy Week/Triduum Liturgies

Dear Friends,

I am offering a sort of ‘heads up’ blurb of information to let you know that we are working on planning for our Catholic High Holy Days liturgies: those of Holy Week & the Sacred Triduum. I invite you & your family to join us, united in prayer.

We will not distribute any blest palm branches until it is entirely safe for us to do so. We will store the blest branches in refrigeration so that they may be given out at a later time.

The Holy Thursday 7 pm. Mass of the Lord’s Supper will be offered via live-stream on FaceBook Live, then posted to the parish website. As per directives from the Vatican & Archdiocese, there will not be any foot-washing as is customarily done normally. Also, there will be no procession followed by adoration at the repository through the night, as we would do ordinarily.

The Good Friday of the Lord’s Passion 3 pm. Commemoration will also be offered via live-stream on FaceBook Live, then posted to the parish website. There will be an added Intercession for the end of the pandemic included. For the Veneration of the Cross, this year we will not touch or kiss the crucifix, but rather we will bow solemnly before it.

I am canceling the Holy Saturday blessing of foods this year because of potential infection concerns. I know that this is disappointing for many of us & I wish that it could be otherwise. God forbid, however, that our liturgical practices be a source of possible infection & transmission of this awful bug we are all working so hard to distance & eradicate. I invite you to invoke God’s blessings at your family dinner tables before enjoying your Easter Sunday meal—be assured that God responds to your prayerful appeal. Blessings to all of us for a good Holy Week!

The Easter Vigil, In The Holy Night 8 pm. Mass will also be live-streamed then posted on the parish website. We will omit the lighting of the Easter fire outside. Also, the baptism & confirmation of the Elect & the reception of Candidates into full communion with the Church will occur at a later time—yet to be determined, but when it is safe for us to gather.

On Easter Sunday, we will live-stream on FaceBook Live the 7:30 am. Mass, which will also be posted on the parish website for later viewing. Blessings to all for a happy & holy Easter!

Fr. Terry
In Friday’s (March 27, 2020) Urbi et Orbi blessing, Pope Francis wrote:
“When evening had come…the Gospel passage we have just heard begins like this. For weeks now it has been evening. Thick darkness has gathered over our squares, our streets and our cities; it has taken over our lives, filling everything with a deafening silence and a distressing void, that stops everything as it passes by; we feel it in the air, we notice in people’s gestures, their glances give them away. We find ourselves afraid and lost. Like the disciples in the Gospel we were caught off guard by an unexpected, turbulent storm. We have realized that we are on the same boat, all of us fragile and disoriented, but at the same time important and needed, all of us called to row together, each of us in need of comforting the other. On this boat... are all of us. Just like those disciples, who spoke anxiously with one voice, saying “We are perishing”, so we too have realized that we cannot go on thinking of ourselves, but only together can we do this.”

Please pray for all our parishioners who are currently serving in the military: Guerin, USMC, Andrew Balek, Lieutenant Stephen Campbell, USMC, Lt. Martin P. O’Donnell, Jr.

On this day of Palm Sunday of the Lord’s Passion we commemorate Jesus’ arrival in Jerusalem. He is greeted with palm branches and hailed as king. How quickly the tide will turn against Him. During this holiest of weeks, we remember Jesus’ last days, last hours, last minutes before He died on the cross to make our entrance to heaven possible. We know the story well but we are challenged to enter into the POWER of it once again. It is the Word of God thundering through the gathered assembly, wherever we may be, making the events present to us as the supreme sacrifice that even now SAVES.

The Religious Education Staff and Students send prayerful wishes to our Parish Family for a blessed Holy week! Please stay well and safe. We remember you in our thoughts and prayers. Jesus, crucified Savior, have mercy on us and on the world. Through the intercession of your most holy Mother, please end the scourge of the coronavirus.

RESPECT LIFE

“Christ Jesus, though He was in the form of God…emptied Himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness…He humbled Himself…to the point of death.” Philippians 2:6, 7, 8

On Palm Sunday the readings from the Old Testament are fulfilled in the New. The ancient Prophet Isaiah (50:4-7) foretold the coming of a disciple/teacher/servant who shared God’s Word, who strengthened and comforted the suffering, only to be rejected and tormented by the very people whose misery he had soothed. “I have not turned back...from buffets and spitting….The Lord God is my help.” Trust in God.

As Jesus rode into Jerusalem, the crowds gathered with cheers of “Hosanna” for the King of Kings—He knew they would soon be jeering, spitting and screaming for His death. Yet, “Though he was in the form of God...He emptied Himself.” Knowing the human torture and pain He would endure, we ask ourselves, “Why? Why didn’t He just turn His back on the violent blood thirsty crowd—and us?”

Pope Benedict once wrote, “Pain is part of being human. Anyone who really wanted to get rid of suffering would have to get rid of love before anything else, because there can be no love without suffering, because it always demands an element of self-sacrifice...renunciation and pain. When we know that the way of love—this exodus, this going out of oneself—is the true way by which man becomes human, then we also understand that suffering is the process through which we mature. Anyone who has consistently avoided suffering does not understand other people; he becomes hard and selfish...If we say that suffering is the inner side of love, we then also understand why it is so important to learn how to suffer—and why, conversely, the avoidance of suffering renders someone unfit to cope with life. ...Jesus does not come to make us comfortable; rather He sets fire to the earth; He brings the great living fire of divine love, which is what the Holy Spirit is, a fire that burns.”

The late country singer, Johnny Cash, once sang, “Love is a burning thing, and it makes a fiery ring...I fell for you like a child.” And that is what Christ is seeking through His Profound Gift of Passion—our love like a child—burning with a desire to be with Him always, burning with faith so strong we have complete trust in Him.

Jesus said, “Whoever comes close to Me comes close to the fire.” Benedict explains, “Not a destructive fire but one that makes things bright and pure and free.” The message Christ brings is Truth. “This message is in fact there precisely...to conflict with our behavior to tear man out of his life of lies and bring clarity and truth.” Truth and love aren’t easy. They make demands. They can burn—“to the point of death.”
