Pastor's Corner

One of the many things that gives me reason to worry are due dates. When is a certain report due? When do I have to call this person or that couple back by? I seem to be checking my calendar more and more just to make sure that I am up to date with any projects that are going on. We all understand this kind of concern whether its at the job or with the different responsibilities with the family. It should bring us all comfort that there is no time limit or due date with the love of God.

Our Gospel this weekend shows us a man who keeps going out at each different time of the day to see if there is anyone else who wishes to work. At the end of the day, each one is paid the same amount. Naturally the ones who worked longer thought it was unjust The landowner response is perfect. "Are you envious because I am generous?" Our Lord is extremely generous about His love and mercy for us. It is so immense that it is never too late to turn to Him and be embraced by it. Yet, how many of us sometimes feel that we have missed the boat. Nothing can be father from the truth.

Our God will give us as many times as we need to get it right. Never should we think that we have exhausted God's love and mercy for us. Whether we turn to our God in the beginning of our lives or come later on, God is ready and willing to welcome us in.

Relevant Radio

A National Catholic Radio Network

Helping people bridge the gap between faith and everyday life.

This National Catholic Radio Network is now available to listeners throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Relevant airs locally on 640 AM WWJZ, online at www.relevantradio.com, and through their free mobile phone application from anywhere in the world.

Prayer Line

St. Francis of Assisi Prayer Line is open. As a community we pray for those who are sick and/or in need of prayers for other reasons. There are two ways to have one included in the Prayer Line. E-mail and a phone line are available. To e-mail your request visit our website stfrancisorris-town.com, select "Prayer Requests" and follow the instructions. You do not have to include your name unless you desire. Please call 610-757-4070 for phone requests and follow the prompts. Each week the requests are printed and distributed to our Prayer Group for prayers and a copy placed in the Mass Intention Book, which is located in the Sacred Heart Chapel. From September until the end of May the Eucharistic Adoration members also pray for your requests after the 8:30 am Monday Mass until 4:00 pm, and during the summer months after the 8:30 am Monday Mass until 9:30 am. Please consider volunteering for the prayer line Ministry. Prayer is a spiritual work of Mercy and a powerful healer for all of us. There are many in need of our prayers because of health problems or those suffering mental anguish of caring for a loved one. Be assured our Prayer Group wants to pray for your intentions. Thank you and God Bless you.

Paying It Forward

This year's catechetical theme is "I Received from the Lord what I also Handed on to You." The quote is taken from 1 Corinthians chapter 11 where St. Paul is speaking in reference to the gift of Holy Eucharist left to us from Jesus. Catechists echo the actions of St. Paul as they share the faith which was passed on to them. There are many in our community who have a deep faith and if you are one who wants to share your faith, to 'pay it forward', we would like to have you join our team of catechists.

If you don't feel you have the qualifications, I can assure you that you are better qualified than you think. We do offer training materials and annual updates that are sponsored by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. One on one training can be provided as necessary. You may even find that teaching is a learning experience which will help you grow in your relationship with Jesus.

With the events of last year's shut down due to Covid 19, we have had to prepare to run our Catechetical program as a hybrid and homeschooling program. If you can help to support our children and our families in this year's program, please contact Nancy Sanchez at the rectory (610) 272-0402 for more details.

Sunday, September 20th, 2020 Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

When I was “one and twenty,” a very long time ago, I was a seminarian naive to many ways of the world. On vacation at home one morning, my beloved Dad asked me questions about the very parable we hear this weekend. For background purposes, let me tell you that my Dad was a strong union man, and thought that was the workers’ only protection against unfair management practices. So how do I reconcile the Lord Jesus telling a story about what looks like a contradiction of justice?

I cannot remember my answer to Dad at the time. I’m sure I struggled to defend Jesus’ decision. Admittedly, no seminary Scripture class in my time ever covered every verse in Scripture, much less this selection. It was only years later that I learned what Jesus was all about in telling this parable. It was to teach us about the remarkable generosity of God. It was the very same lesson that Isaiah had taught centuries before. God’s ways are not ours. So it is futile to “frame” the picture painted by the parable with our modern labor laws, rights and practices. We then would miss the Lord’s point.

In our time, overshadowed as it is by an enemy named Covid 19, we have been made aware of many people’s generosity. They keep our cynicism in check. Health care workers, emergency responders; the transit workers; grocery store employees; and all the good police personnel bravely keep us safe.

But none of that goodness can match the generosity that our good and loving God offers us. His grace is the ultimate motivation of all those good people, and many others.

There is a much older “virus” plaguing our lives called “sin.” Yet He tells us still that one act of genuine sorrow and repentance turns back His just cause for eternal punishment, and realigns our spirit with His. Such is His boundless generosity! We are far from it. Sadly many of us have a twisted attitude toward giving, especially forgiving.

Once upon a time, a little girl was given two dollars by her father. He told her that she could do anything she wanted with one and that the other was to be given to God on Sunday at church. The girl nodded in agreement and asked if she could go to the candy store. With visions of all that she could buy with her dollar, she happily skipped toward the store, holding tightly to the two dollars in her hand. As she was skipping along, she tripped and fell and the wind blew one of the dollars into a storm drain at the curb. Picking herself up, the little girl looked at the dollar still in her hand and then at the storm drain and said, “Well, Lord, there goes your dollar.”
