Welcome OLG parishioners!
We'd like to extend a warm welcome to our newly registered parishioners and to any guests visiting us this week.
Our Lady of Grace, pray for us.
~ THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~

Reading I: Ezekiel 33: 7-9 The prophet is tasked with becoming a watchman over Israel. He must warn the wicked to change their ways or else the consequences will be deadly. Not to urge them so, in a form of fraternal correction, would bring about the prophet’s own death.

Reading II: Romans 13: 8-10 Paul teaches his readers that charity always has a role in Christian conduct. Nor is it to be limited to fellow Christians. Love is ultimately the complete fulfillment of the Mosaic law.

The Gospel: Matthew 18: 15-20 Matthew has Jesus speak in a way unlike anything else He has said, with references to matters like the Church, which did not yet exist. Still, the teaching about fraternal correction is timeless. Later comes the consoling words of His guarantee of presence in any gathering of two or more made in His name.

TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR A MASS TO BE SAID PLEASE CALL THE I.H.M. CENTER: 215-757-7700

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen
Dear Friends,

“Amen, Amen I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by My heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in the midst of them.” Jesus reminds us of His abiding presence among us. He is with us when we gather in His Name and He listens to us. He hears our prayers because He is attentive to us. As we gather together we are reminded of His presence which lifts us up and leads us forward.

Welcome back to all our students and faculty who started school last Tuesday. Please keep everyone in prayer as the new school year begins.

I hope everyone has an enjoyable Labor Day weekend. We thank God for the ability to work and to share in His creative activity in the world. Please pray also for people who are unemployed and seeking a job. The daily Mass tomorrow (Monday) will be at 9:00 a.m. rather than the usual 8:00 a.m.

God bless,
Monsignor Prior

Pray FOR THE SICK

What We Believe
By Maddie Appleby

Church Music: Liturgical, Musical, and Pastoral

Music in the Catholic Church has taken many forms over the years. Whether we find ourselves singing Gregorian chant, sacred polyphony, or the hymns we often find in our current Breaking Bread hymnals, music has always played an integral part in our liturgies – and for good reason. Good liturgical music allows us to join with the choirs of angels in praising and worshiping God. It lifts our eyes to Heaven and helps us to pray.

Any music sung during the liturgy must abide by three essential principles: at its foundation, all church music must be liturgical, musical, and pastoral. It must be liturgical in that it must be holy. It should follow the liturgical action (for example, a hymn about the Eucharist should be sung as the faithful receive Communion, thus connecting what is happening musically to what is happening liturgically). The text we sing must also faithfully express what we truly believe as Catholics, never deviating from Church teaching.

Church music should also be musical. This principle may seem obvious, but it is important to consider the beauty of the music chosen for the liturgy – after all, music at Mass should inspire and motivate us to go deeper in prayer and strengthen our relationship with God. Thus, church music should be “true art,” possessing a beauty that leaves us yearning for Heaven.

Finally, church music must be pastoral. This means that the music we sing during the liturgy should be universal, encouraging active participation from all the faithful. It should invite the prayerful involvement of every person present at Mass, young and old.

When we use these guiding principles as a foundation for all the church music we choose to sing and play throughout the liturgy, we can be sure that our music will serve as a beautiful prayer of praise, worship, and thanksgiving to God.
