Dear Parishioners,

We are in a most incredible moment in our history—especially for us Roman Catholics. The efforts on the part of all—church, government and health officials—to impede the spread of the Coronavirus have led to the suspension of all public Masses until further notice. The impact and consequences of this measure are profound for us who have the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at the center of our lives. Even though public Masses have been suspended—and for good reason—our nearness to the Holy Eucharist and living our Catholic Faith endures, and especially so, during this unique period. I encourage you to make your home your church. Pray, read the holy Word of God, unite yourself to the offering of Holy Mass and Communion in your hearts, especially on Sunday. Please see this Archdiocesan site with many helpful resources: http://archphila.org/resources/. We also need to be concerned about those who are alone and vulnerable in our families and neighborhoods. Let us reach out more than usual. The Cathedral Basilica remains open every day during this period for prayer, especially before the Most Blessed Sacrament. Be assured your priests are offering Mass each day for all our intentions.

This is the Fourth Sunday of Lent, Laetare Sunday! Yes, Lent continues. This Sunday marks the nearness of Easter and fills our hearts with rejoicing as soon we will celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord. The Gospel this Sunday (see John 9: 1–41) tells the familiar story of the encounter of the man born blind with the Lord Jesus. The blind man disparately wanted to see again and believed Jesus could restore his sight. The Lord not only opens the eyes of the blind man to see again but also opens his heart to faith, to believe in who Jesus is. Our greatest cause of spiritual blindness is our sin. Our sin keeps us from seeing clearly who Jesus is. As Lent continues this week—and with Easter so near—let us pray that we too can see again more fully our need for conversion and repentance. Jesus, with his mercy and love, especially with the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, restores our spiritual sight. Even though public Masses are suspended at the moment, Confessions continue to be heard at the Cathedral Basilica at the usual scheduled times. Please do not fail to make a good Confession this Lent, a most fitting way to prepare for Easter which is around the corner.

Please also keep in mind that it is our duty to celebrate the Sacraments for those in danger of death, especially with the reception of the last Holy Communion, Holy Viaticum. Please call on the priests to minister to anyone who is seriously ill at this time, especially nearing the end of life. Also, during this period Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals continue to take place. Although the numbers that assemble are to be small and social distancing enforced, these most significant sacramental occasions for Christians cannot and should not be easily set aside.

Since there are no public Masses, there are no collections. However, it is important that we continue to support the Cathedral Parish. I recognize that so many of you will be affected in a financially negative way with the shutdowns associated with Coronavirus. Yet, please do not forget the Cathedral Parish with whatever financial support is possible. You can mail your Sunday offering to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see http://cathedralphila.org/donate/. I am so very grateful for your goodness and generosity.

God bless you!
Father Dennis Gill

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Estamos en el momento más increíble de nuestra historia, especialmente para nosotros los católicos romanos. Los esfuerzos de la iglesia, de todos los funcionarios del gobierno, y la salud para impedir la propagación del coronavirus han llevado a la suspensión de todas las misas públicas hasta nuevo aviso. El impacto y las consecuencias de esta medida son profundos para nosotros que tenemos el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa en el centro de nuestras vidas. A pesar de que las Misas públicas han sido suspendidas, y por una buena razón, nuestra cercanía a la Sagrada Eucaristía y a vivir nuestra fe católica perdura, y especialmente, durante este periodo único. Te animo a hacer de tu hogar tu iglesia. Oren, lean la santa Palabra de Dios, úanse a la ofrenda de la Santa Misa y la Comunión en sus corazones, especialmente los domingos. Consulte este sitio arquidiocesano con muchos recursos útiles: http://archphila.org/resources/. También debemos preocuparnos por aquellos que están solos y vulnerables en nuestras familias y vecindarios. Busquemoslos más de lo habitual. La Basílica de la Catedral permanece abierta todos los días durante este periodo para la oración, especialmente ante el Santísimo Sacramento. Tenga la seguridad de que sus sacerdotes están ofreciendo misa todos los días por todas nuestras intenciones.

¡Este es el cuarto domingo de Cuaresma, domingo de Laetare! Sí, la Cuaresma continúa. Este domingo marca la cercanía de la Pascua y llena nuestros corazones de alegría, ya que pronto celebraremos la resurrección del Señor. El Evangelio de este domingo (véase Juan 9: 1-41) cuenta la historia familiar del encuentro del hombre nacido ciego con el Señor Jesús. El hombre ciego quería ver nuevamente y creía que Jesús podía restaurar su vista. El Señor no solo abre los ojos del ciego para ver de nuevo, sino que también abre su corazón a la fe, para creer en quién es Jesús. Nuestra mayor causa de ceguera espiritual es nuestro pecado. Nuestro pecado nos impide ver claramente quién es Jesús. Mientras la Cuaresma continúe esta semana, y con la Pascua tan cerca, recemos para que nosotros también podamos ver más plenamente nuestra necesidad de conversión y arrepentimiento. Jesús, con su misericordia y amor, especialmente con el Sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación, restaura nuestra visión espiritual. A pesar de que las Misas públicas están suspendidas en este momento, las Confesiones se siguen escuchando en la Basílica de la Catedral en los horarios habituales. Por favor, no deje de hacer una buena confesión en esta Cuaresma, la forma más adecuada de prepararse para la Pascua que está a la vuelta de la esquina.

Tenga en cuenta también que es nuestro deber celebrar los sacramentos para las personas en peligro de muerte, especialmente con la recepción de la última comunión, el sagrado viático. Pida a los sacerdotes que ministren a cualquiera que esté gravemente enfermo en este momento, especialmente al final de la vida. Además, durante este periodo se siguen celebrando bautizos, bodas y funerales. Aunque los números que se juntan deben ser pequeños y el distanciamiento social impuesto, estas ocasiones sacramentales más importantes para los cristianos no pueden y no deben dejarse de lado fácilmente.

Como no hay Misas públicas, no hay colecciones. Sin embargo, es importante que sigamos apoyando a la Parroquia de la Catedral. Reconozco que muchos de ustedes se verán afectados de manera negativa desde el punto de vista financiero con los cierres asociados con el Coronavirus. Sin embargo, no se olvide de la Parroquia de la Catedral con el apoyo financiero posible. Puede enviar su ofrenda dominical por correo a la Oficina de la Parroquia de la Catedral o hacer uso de las muchas formas de dar electrónicamente. Por favor vea http://cathedralphila.org/donate/. Estoy muy agradecido por su bondad y generosidad.

¡Dios te bendiga! Padre Dennis Gill
Today, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia announced that Archbishop Nelson J. Pérez has suspended all public Masses in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia effective at 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday, March 18th and until further notice.

Last week, the Archbishop dispensed the faithful from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. Both decisions were made in response to the growing concern over the spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and the directives provided by government and health department officials at the local, state, and national levels. These measures will be re-evaluated pending future developments.

CLICK HERE to find a news release that has been distributed to the media as well as liturgical directives that have been shared with all clergy in the Archdiocese.

Archbishop Pérez said, “As the Archbishop of Philadelphia, my first priority is to ensure the health and welfare of those entrusted to the pastoral and temporal care of our Church. So, in light of the developing Coronavirus pandemic, a decision has been made to suspend the public celebration of all Masses in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for the time being.

All of us need to do our part to slow the spread of this illness. Like you, we are monitoring coronavirus developments and look forward to continuing our lives on a more normal basis. While things may look and feel different during these uncertain times, I want to be very clear that the Catholic Church in Philadelphia is not closing down. It is not disappearing and it will not abandon you. Time and again as our history has proven the Church has risen to meet great challenges and provide a beacon of hope and light.

As your Shepherd, I promise that the Church remains steadfast and is prepared to walk with you and serve you. Neither the Church nor its charitable works will stop. God is always by our side. He never abandons us. I invite you to join me in prayerful solidarity for the intentions of the sick, suffering, and their caregivers as well as government and health officials. With God’s grace and blessing, we will navigate the difficult waters of this challenge as a united human family, for after all is said and done, we are people of Hope!”

Though public Masses are suspended in all churches in the Archdiocese, the right and need of the faithful to hear the Word of God and celebrate the Sacraments is not put aside. Pastors, along with all those who work with them, will be as attentive as possible to all the spiritual, pastoral, and charitable needs of the people they serve.

Priests will continue to offer the sacrifice of the Holy Mass during this period and to honor all requested Mass intentions.

Churches can remain open as a location for private prayer at the discretion of the pastor. Baptisms, Confessions, Marriages, and Funerals will take place as usual but with due regard for the limitation of participants and reasonable social distancing.

In conjunction with directives already in force in hospitals and institutions, all visits to the sick with Holy Communion, including in private homes, by priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are suspended. In such instances, only priests will be available to celebrate the Sacraments for those in immediate danger of death. In all circumstances, government and health agency directives for group size and social distancing are to be observed as the Archdiocese of Philadelphia strives to meet the pastoral and temporal needs of all those in need.

On Sunday, March 15th, the Archdiocese featured a live streaming broadcast of the 11:00 a.m. Mass on its website and Archbishop Pérez’ Facebook page for the benefit of those wishing to participate in the liturgy remotely.

This broadcast will continue each Sunday on an ongoing basis. Additional information regarding opportunities for prayer and devotions are available on the Archdiocesan website.
