Dear Parishioners,

Today is the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time! The Lord Jesus, in this Sunday’s Gospel, continues to teach us about his great Gift to us in the Holy Eucharist. The marvel revealed to us over the past few weeks is just what is the Holy Eucharist—the Lord himself! Today, we hear additional good news about this Gift of the Eucharist. “I am the living bread that comes down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world (John 6:51).” We profess that the Eucharist is truly and really Jesus Christ. With this profession of faith comes a deeper understanding. With our worthy reception of Communion there is a connection with eternal life and the way we are to live our Christian lives. When we receive Holy Communion, we eat and drink of the risen and glorified Lord, the Lord who awaits us at the heavenly banquet. In fact, the Lord gives us his Body and Blood during the Mass from his place in heaven. “Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb” are the words that are part of our invitation to come forward for Holy Communion at each Mass. The Lord who makes us one in his Body with Holy Communion compels us to recognize him and serve him in one another. Let us hear in this teaching of Jesus a necessary reminder to express our own personal love and devotion for the Holy Eucharist. Let us also be sincere to receive Holy Communion without serious sin and ready to live from all the blessings and graces that come to us from the Lord.

Next Sunday, August 15, 2021 is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This observance fills us with the hope that what is Mary’s eternal glory may one day come to each of us as well in the death and resurrection of her Divine Son. Next Sunday is also the Sunday when the obligation to assist at Sunday Mass returns to the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. In fact, the obligation is restored to all the dioceses in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Please see elsewhere in today’s bulletin the electronic link to read the Archbishop’s letter about the restoration of the Sunday Mass obligation.

Once again, we are preparing for more than 20 possible catechumens and candidates to be a part of our adult Christian Initiation ministry. This is good news and a sign that the Lord is at work among us drawing people to himself. With so many potential catechumens and candidates, we are in need of additional parish sponsors. If this interests you or you would like more information about a parish sponsor, please contact me.

Once again, please see elsewhere in this edition of the Parish Bulletin information on the preparation for the Sacraments—Confirmation, Penance and Reconciliation, First Holy Communion—for school age children. It is very encouraging the number of parents who have responded to this invitation. Please do not delay in making contact with the Parish Office for enrollment in this preparation program.

Next Sunday, the second collection will be directed to the national collection for the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see http://cathedraphila.org/donate. Thank you so much for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish.

God bless you,
Father Dennis Gill, Rector

* Los materiales en línea estarán disponibles en caso de que las clases en persona se vuelvan imposibles debido a Covid-19.
* Los que no son feligreses también son bienvenidos.

PÓNGASE EN CONTACTO CON LA HERMANA MARY RAPHAEL, COORDINADORA DE DIVULGACIÓN, EN sr.mparadis@archphila.org LO ANTES POSIBLE ANTES DEL 27 DE AGOSTO O LLAME AL 215-561-1313 SI TIENE PREGUNTAS. ¡NECESITAMOS PEDIR LOS LIBROS PARA LAS CLASES!
Para las clases en español, envíe un correo electrónico a Arturo Cévez a aceves28@gmail.com, o hable con él después de la misa dominical en español a las 12:30pm en la Capilla.

REFLEXIÓN DEL RECTOR
Estimados feligreses,

¡Hoy es el Décimo-noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario! El Señor Jesús, en el Evangelio de este domingo, continúa enseñándonos sobre su gran Don para nosotros en la Sagrada Eucaristía. La maravilla que se nos ha revelado durante las últimas semanas es lo que es la Sagrada Eucaristía: ¡el Señor mismo! Hoy escuchamos buenas noticias adicionales sobre este Don de la Eucaristía. “Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. Y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida (Juan 6: 51”) Profesamos que la Eucaristía es verdadera y realmente Jesucristo. Con esta profesión de fe llega una comprensión más profunda. Con nuestra digna recepción de la Comunión hay una conexión con la vida eterna y la forma en que debemos vivir nuestra vida cristiana. Cuando recibimos la Sagrada Comunión, comemos y beberemos del Señor resucitado y glorificado, el Señor que nos espera en el banquete celestial. De hecho, el Señor nos da su Cuerpo y su Sangre durante la Misa desde su lugar en el cielo. “Bienaventurados los llamados a la cena del Cordero” son las palabras que forman parte de nuestra invitación a acercarnos a la Sagrada Comunión en cada Misa. El Señor que nos hace uno en su Cuerpo con la Sagrada Comunión nos obliga a reconocerlo y servirle a él en el prójimo. Escuchemos en esta enseñanza de Jesús un recordatorio necesario para expresar nuestro amor personal y devoción por la Sagrada Eucaristía. Seamos también sinceros para recibir la Sagrada Comunión sin pecado grave y dispuestos a vivir de todas las bendiciones y gracias que nos llegan del Señor.

El próximo domingo 15 de agosto de 2021 es la Solemnidad de la Asunción de la Santísima Virgen María. Esta observancia nos llena de la esperanza de que la gloria eterna de María pueda llegar un día a cada uno de nosotros también en la muerte y resurrección de su Divino Hijo. El próximo domingo también es el domingo cuando la obligación de asistir a la Misa domínical regresa a la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia. De hecho, la obligación se restablece a todas las diócesis del Commonwealth de Pennsylvania. Consulte en otra parte del boletín de hoy el enlace electrónico para leer la carta del Arzobispo sobre la restauración de la obligación de la misa domínical.

Una vez más, nos estamos preparando para que más de 20 posibles catecúmenos y candidatos formen parte de nuestro ministerio de Iniciación Cristiana para adultos. Esta es una buena noticia y una señal de que el Señor está obrando entre nosotros atrayendo a la gente hacia él. Con tantos potenciales catecúmenos y candidatos, necesitamos padrinos/madrinas parroquiales adicionales. Si esto le interesa o desea obtener más información sobre un padrino/madrina parroquial, comuníquese conmigo.

Una vez más, por favor vea en otra parte de esta edición del Boletín Parroquial la información sobre la preparación para los sacramentos — Confirmación, Penitencia y Reconciliación, Primera Comunión para niños en edad escolar. Es muy alentador el número de padres que han respondido a esta invitación. No se demore en ponerse en contacto con la Oficina Parroquial para inscribirse en este programa de preparación.

El próximo domingo, la segunda colecta se dirigirá a la colecta nacional de la Universidad Católica de América en Washington, DC. Puede enviar sus ofrendas domínicas a la Oficina Parroquial de la Catedral o hacer uso de las muchas formas de donar electrónicamente. Consulte http://cathedralphila.org/donate/. Muchas gracias por su bondad y generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral.

Dios lo bendiga,
Padre Dennis Gill,
Rector

PARISHIONER INFORMATION UPDATE

New Parishioners
Welcome to the Cathedral Parish!
The easiest way to register can be accomplished by speaking with one of the parish priests after any regularly scheduled Mass. If preferred, you can also contact the Parish Office to schedule an appointment to meet with a priest for parish registration.

Parishioners
If you have new contact information, new members in your household, or someone in your household has received a sacrament, please call the Parish Office so that our records can be updated. If you have not been receiving your weekly offering envelopes, again, please call the Parish Office to insure that your address is registered correctly. If you are planning on moving away please let us know.
Parish Office phone number is 215-561-1313.

The Sacrament of Baptism
The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism is the doorway to the Christian life and to all the other Sacraments. As such, preparation of the parents and for the Baptism itself deserve very special attention. The celebration of Baptism at the Cathedral Parish takes place on the FIRST Sunday of each month at 12:30 PM after the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass. Everyone is welcome. The celebration will be carried out with liturgical music and with a great sense of hospitality.

Upcoming Baptisms: September 5, 2021; October 3, 2021; and November 7, 2021.

A Baptism Preparation Session takes place on the THIRD Sunday of each month at 12:30PM in anticipation of the celebration of the Sacrament. Parents in the Cathedral Parish are obligated to participate. The session is open to all of our neighbor parishes and to godparents as well.
Parents are encouraged to participate during pregnancy, if at all possible. Please call Sister Mary Marta at the rectory by calling 215–561-1313 to register for the Baptism Preparation Session provide your phone number, parish, and names of people attending. Also note if you would like to schedule the baptism at the Cathedral.

Upcoming prep sessions: August 15, 2021; September 19, 2021; and October 17, 2021.
On August 15, 2021 the Solemnity of the Assumption, the obligation to assist (be present) at Mass in-person will be reinstated. This means that as Catholic Christians living in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia we are to be present for Holy Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Our absence carries with it the pain of sin. Exceptions to this obligation ordinarily consist of those obstacles posed by grave physical (illness) or moral (excess fear, anxiety etc.) factors that would make assisting at Mass difficult if not impossible. This begs the question – why is it so important to be at Mass on Sunday? Is it “just a rule” or more? Over the next few weeks we will look at this from a couple of angles. Where do we begin?

The best place to begin is at the beginning, the very beginning. Following the six days of Creation, having completed His first labor of love on behalf of mankind (creating and bringing mankind into being) God rests on the seventh day, the Sabbath. We read in Genesis “God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work he had done in creation.” Following Israel’s liberation from Egypt the observance of this seventh day will be codified in the Ten Commandments: “Remember the Sabbath day—keep it holy.” This day, the seventh or Sabbath, for the Jewish people is Saturday.

The observance of the seventh day is recalled particularly so that Israel may imitate God, he rested on the seventh day, and recall the mighty work of salvation the Lord wrought on their behalf; freeing them from servile labor to be a people peculiarly his own. With Jesus, we see the fulfillment of the Old Law. In Jesus, some parts of the law are fulfilled, as in completed and done, others parts are fulfilled in that they are perfected. In Jesus, the definitive Lord’s Day, is Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord wherein Jesus conquers sin and death opens the way to heaven for all who believe in Him.

Pope Innocent I, writing at the beginning of the fifth century testifies to the custom of gathering on Sunday: “We celebrate Sunday because of the venerable Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we do so not only at Easter but also at the turning of the week.” The center point of these observance of this day for Christians, particularly Catholic, is the celebration of the Eucharist.

In the Eucharist, the saving sacrifice of Jesus is re-presented, made present again, and those persons believing in him are permitted to taste the fruits of the tree of life, the cross, in the reception of his very body and blood, under the forms of bread and wine. In ancient times, as now, it was a defining characteristic of the Christian people to refrain from servile labor on Sunday and gather for the “breaking of the bread.” Sharing in the one sacrifice of Christ the Christian people are made one.

Next week we will look more closely at that duty particularly and the obligation that flow from it. See you at Holy Mass!

Dear Parishioner...

Is there a restaurant on the bulletin you like? Is there a home improvement project you’ve been putting off? Have you been thinking about finding a new doctor? Have you been thinking about selling your house? Do you need answers to a few legal questions? Is there a tree in your yard that needs attention?

Everyone has answered YES to one if not all of these questions. Before you begin looking for anything, check if the goods/services you need are offered by a bulletin advertiser in the Finding Faber™ app. You may find a promotion or coupon & be able to support our advertisers AND save!
