Thirty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time
Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14
2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5

In this passage we find Jesus teaching in the temple. The Sadducees, who believed in the absolute authority of the law, approached Jesus with a question about the law. These Sadducees belonged to a group who did not accept the Jewish tradition that believed in the resurrection of the dead. They objected to those who believed that any afterlife was merely a continuation of earthly life. None of us know exactly what to expect after death, but we do have the promise of eternal life and we believe in the fullness of that life.

November Month of The Holy Souls

November is the month dedicated to the Holy Souls, a time when we remember our deceased loved ones in special and various ways. Praying for the deceased we loved and visiting the graves of family and friends, if possible, are important, meaningful and significant ways of commemorating our deceased loved ones. November is an excellent month to attend Mass on a weekday as well as on Sunday and to offer our prayers and communion at Mass in memory of someone important to us who is deceased.

A Prayer for our Veterans

God of peace, we pray for those who have served our nation and have laid down their lives to protect and defend our freedom.

We pray for those who have fought, whose spirits and bodies are scarred by war, whose nights are haunted by memories too painful for the light of day.

We pray those who serve us now, especially for those in harm’s way. Shield them from danger and bring them home.

Turn the hearts and minds of our leaders and our enemies to the work of justice and a harvest of peace.

Spare the poor, Lord, spare the poor!

May the peace you left us, the peace you gave us, be the peace that sustains, the peace that saves us. Amen.
