Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

St. Mark, in giving us this scene for meditation as the Holy Spirit's spokesman, hits upon the secret of every good salesperson as well. For it seems to me that such people are actually selling a dream. One they passionately believe in.

My own dear Dad spent the bulk of his working years selling life insurance. In this case, the "dream" is guaranteed security and strong protection against the twin nightmares of uncertainty and fear. But all salespeople offer a product that will not only preclude disaster but also bring a strong dose of hope and optimism.

Our Lord Jesus could also be called "the World's Greatest Salesman." He has all the good qualities of a person who believes in what they're selling, so to speak, and none of the dark characteristics often attributed to salespeople. His "product" of course is "the Kingdom of God." He tells us it is nearer than we think.

In the process, He was actually selling Himself as the perfect actualization of that kingdom. He made His hearers understand that this kingdom is such that positivity is the law of the land and undying love is its hallmark. In other words, He was "selling" God back to those who had abandoned Him. How good He was at His work shows in the way even His first listeners were so quickly able to leave behind much of their old life and walk with Him.

Some of the actors who have played Jesus in Hollywood films have managed for me to capture His charm to a satisfying degree. It may be that as a confirmed romantic I fell for their portrayals too easily. But I watched through the lens of a committed believer in Jesus, and one who has his own ideas of how to play Jesus. However, the Bible tells me not just to play the role but live it.

But no matter our nature or temperament, we are all "hard wired" to be attracted by truth and the obvious conviction of an authentic truth teller. We "buy into" their wares with ease. Is it any wonder that Simon and Andrew, James and John dropped their fishing nets to follow the Divine Troubadour? And aren't you glad that you did too? What we have gained from this magnetism of the Master is the joy of having Someone to believe in. That cannot be taken away from us by anyone, especially the one "evil salesman" who was formerly an archangel. That's why it's best for us to remember:

*"You are writing a Gospel, a chapter each day,
By deeds that you do, by words that you say.
People read what you write, whether faithless or true.
Say! What is that gospel, according to YOU?"*

God love you and give you His peace!

Parish Theme for 2020-2021

Rejoice in Hope; Endure in Affliction; Persevere in Prayer

From the Pastor

Year of St. Joseph – On December 8, 2020, Pope Francis declared that the Church would observe a special year of dedication to St. Joseph until December 8, 2021. This dedication is to celebrate the 150th Anniversary of St. Joseph being declared the Patron of the Universal Church. Just as he watched over Jesus as his guardian, St. Joseph watches over the Church, the Body of Christ. St. Joseph is a powerful spiritual figure in the history of salvation. This year of dedication is meant to increase our love for him, implore his intercession, and imitate his virtues. We are looking forward to giving some extra attention to St. Joseph in our Parish this year so that we can be more deeply united through him to our Lord.

Liturgy Committee – We will meet by Zoom on Tuesday, Feb. 2 at 6:00 pm.

Mass for Respect Life at the Cathedral-Basilica – In conjunction with the March for Life in Washington, D.C., a Mass for Life will be celebrated at the Cathedral-Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia at 10:00 am on Friday, January 29. All are welcome.

Parish Theme for this Year (Rejoice in hope; endure in affliction; persevere in prayer.) – St. Joseph is a great witness to living this Scripture passage. He was a man of great strength because of his unwavering hope in God’s plan. Filled with hope, he endured every affliction, such as the flight into Egypt to protect Jesus from King Herod. In good times and in difficulties he was a man of prayer, constantly turning toward God to give him praise and rely on his help.

Church Teaching: Role of Mary and Joseph – To the shepherds, the angel announced the birth of Jesus as the Messiah promised to Israel: “To you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.” From the beginning he was the one whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, conceived as holy in Mary’s virginal womb. God called Joseph to “take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit,” so that Jesus, who is called Christ, should be born of Joseph’s spouse into the messianic lineage of David.

Spiritual Thought: Patience and Perseverance – We must endure and persevere if we are to attain the truth and freedom we have been allowed to hope for. Faith and hope are the very meaning of our being Christians, but if faith and hope are to bear fruit, patience is necessary.” (St. Cyprian)

A Little Humor: A Mother Experiencing the Generation Gap – “My daughter just asked me why we say ‘hang up’ the phone, and now I feel 90.

HELPING OTHER PEOPLE IN EMERGENCY
Suspended until further notice.

St. Margaret Church is open from 7:30 AM to 4:30 PM, Monday through Friday, 7:30 AM to 6:30 PM on Saturday, and 7:15 AM to 1:30 PM on Sunday.

Bible Novena

Between September 2020 and May 2021, the Vocation Office will be praying an extended Novena, reading the entire Bible over the course of these 9 months, and we invite you to join us as we proclaim and hear the word of God and listen for His voice in our lives.

On the first and third Sundays of each month, we will issue videos of the faithful of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia reading the Bible - including priests, deacons, seminarians, and lay faithful. For more information on this 9-Month Bible Novena, please visit Heedthecall.org/BibleNovena or contact Fr. DeLacy or Sue Matour in the Vocation Office at 610-667-5778.

Please remember in your prayers the soul of Elizabeth Ann Neely who recently passed away. May she rest in peace and her loved ones be comforted.

Project Rachel: Healing after Abortion
Peace Starts Here

Prayer - Jesus, Healer of Wounds and Source of Mercy, your hands embrace and welcome little children. As we look on your hands painfully nailed to the cross, extend your Divine Mercy to the tens of millions of women and men in our nation who are wounded from their participation in abortions. Help us as a Church to recognize the unique pain that abortion brings to individuals, families and our society. May the wounds of your hands on the Cross remind us each day of your steadfast love for us as we seek to build a culture of life and be faithful instruments of your hope and healing.

Project Rachel is a collaboration of The Office for Life and Family and Catholic Social Services. For more information, call 1-844-772-2435 or email ProjectRachel@chs-adphila.org.

Online Giving - Saint Margaret Parish has arranged a convenient and secure method of online giving. You can set up all your second collections in advance. Create or login to your Parish Giving account by going to the Parish website and clicking on the logo at the lower right or <https://tinyurl.com/StMargGiving>.

This is an easy way to continue to support your parish both during the COVID-19 pandemic and going forward. Thank you!

Pope Francis has announced The Year of Saint Joseph, which will last from December 8, 2020 to December 8, 2021. The use of the following prayer, written by Pope Leo XIII, has been included among those enriched with a plenary indulgence. It may be said on any day of The Year of Saint Joseph, but especially on days devoted to St. Joseph - his feast days, March 19 and May 1, the nineteenth day of each month, or every Wednesday.

Prayer to Saint Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Amen.

MARCH FOR LIFE

Join us for Mass in Philadelphia in solidarity with the National March for Life in Washington, DC. This Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Pérez at 10 AM on Friday, January 29 at the Cathedral Basilica of SS. Peter and Paul.

Spiritual Adoption Program

What is the Spiritual Adoption Program?

It is very simple. Participants in the Spiritual Adoption Program promise to pray for nine months for a baby in danger of abortion. While this child will remain unknown to his or her “spiritual parent,” God knows who the child is. Many people have found that naming “their child” helps to keep them focused on the reality that their prayers are helping to save a particular baby from the harm of abortion. This can be done in a parish or school setting, with age appropriate materials. To learn more, visit www.spiritualadoption.org.

“Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby’s name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.”

- Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen
