Thank you for your Sacrificial Generosity!
Dear Friends,

The words from today’s Gospel, “repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God,” are a reminder of our struggle to integrate our lives as faithful citizens with our lives as faithful Catholics. We are obligated to do both: to bring faith and our values to all our responsibilities, including our civic duties. There cannot be any double standard to our lives. What we profess, we practice, what we believe, we live! May the Eucharist that we receive today be the encouragement and strength we need to be counter-cultural by our witness to Christ and our fidelity to Christ and His Church.

Today, we celebrate World Mission Sunday, heeding Pope Francis’s call to keep our “Hearts on fire, feet on the move.” On this day we reflect on our baptismal promise to be disciples and missioners, sharing the Good News. The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith directly aids priests, religious, and lay leaders in the Pope’s missions, allowing them to minister to and uplift communities in dire need. Today, let us light up the world with our prayers and generosity. Thank you for your heartfelt generosity.

Today after the 11 AM Mass will be the first drawing for our annual Turkey Raffle. Thank you to all who are participating this year. We should be close to the same profit we realized in 2022.

For a time now I have wanted to expand the parish Facilities Committee and this summer I was able to do so. I have been blessed by having a small but very competent and loyal committee which has always had the best interests of the parish at heart. We now have an expanded committee of engineers (civil and mechanical), and other building professionals who are competent in managing the maintenance and improvement of buildings. This past week the committee toured the entire campus in preparation to present me with a five-year plan for maintenance and improvement projects for the entire parish property. This will ensure that, if and when I retire, I will be able to hand over to my successor a parish well maintained and hopefully vibrant in the Lord. I will be keeping you apprised of their recommendations and work going forward.

Next Sunday I will be hosting our class reunion here at Saint Robert’s. I have hosted this in the past and it is always a great time to be with those with whom I “grew up” since 1972 when we entered the seminary. It so hard to believe that in 1972 when we entered, we thought a priest ordained 43 years was ancient! Well, now we must appear the same to those entering the seminary today. How time really does change one’s perspective. I don’t feel ancient, just a little slower, but still feel young at heart. Please say a prayer for my class. Some members are struggling with health issues, and it is sad to see the toll that ministry has taken on some. Four of my classmates have already been called to their heavenly reward. Overall, we are a blessed class who have served the Church faithfully for many years. Your prayers are always welcome.

May Saint Robert Bellarmine bless our journey to the Lord!

With prayers,

29TH SUNDAY IN Ordinary Time
Isaiah 45:1, 4-6; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b; Matthew 22:15-21

Imagine that you are with the group listening to the Pharisees confront Jesus about paying the census tax. What do you expect him to say? When he says, “Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God,” are you surprised? Now think about your own life. What in your life rightly belongs to Caesar? Are you giving to Caesar what is Caesar’s? What in your life belongs to God? Are you giving that to God? Which is easier to do: pay Caesar or pay God?

THE CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL 2023
GIVING HOPE TO ALL ~ Hope and Care for Retired Priests – “I have been blessed to be a priest in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for the last 49 years. As a young priest, I expressed interest in going to language school so I could work more closely with the Hispanic community. I had the desire to be a missionary, and I knew I didn’t have to go to the other side of the world to accomplish this because there was a great need right here in Philadelphia. Even now that I am retired, I continue my work as the Vicar for Hispanic Catholics. These communities are so important to our Archdiocese. They invest a great deal in their families and are always welcoming to others in need. I find praying with them and celebrating important moments in their lives very energizing. We are all made in the image and likeness of God, and are held responsible by the Lord Himself to provide all that we can for these people no matter what language they speak, and no matter the color of their skin.

Now that I am retired, I am residing at Regina Coeli. The retired priests are very grateful for the care they receive at both Regina Coeli and Villa Saint Joseph. Priests give their lives for the church and the people, and it’s important that they are cared for as they move into the last chapter of their lives.

Thank you to all of those who donate to the Catholic Charities Appeal. Because of your dollars, the Archdiocese can provide for the less fortunate. The Catholic Charities Appeal is a way for every person to connect with the work of the church and to live out their faith by helping those in need.” – Most Reverend Edward D. Deliman, Retired Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia

To date the parish is at 144% of our $71,900 goal with a donation of $103,905 from 37 parishioners. Pledge envelopes are located in the Narthex and side entrances. They can be mailed directly to the CCA or dropped in the collection basket. For cash donations the parish office will forward a check, crediting your name to the CCA. You may also donate on the Appeal website, www.catholiccharitiesappeal.org.

WE REMEMBER - An invitation is extended to anyone who has suffered the loss of a loved one be it long ago or in the recent past to join us in the celebration of our Annual Memorial Mass on Thursday, November 2nd, All Souls Day at 7pm followed by refreshments in the narthex. There is no better way to remember our loved ones than to unite in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.
BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS  Next Class – Monday, November 6th at 7pm in the meeting room. Pre-registration is necessary in order to attend the class. No date for Baptism can be set until parents fulfill this requirement.

Parents and Godparents should register for this class as soon as they know of the upcoming birth, and always prior to the actual birth of the child. Register by calling the parish office between 9a & 4p weekdays. Classes held every other month: Jan, Mar, May, Jul, Sep, Nov.

PRO LIFE NEWS: We will be running our Baby Bottle Fundraiser this year from October 6-29th. We will forward all proceeds to help the following crisis pregnancy centers:

Saint Margaret Costello Home, Our Lady’s House, Baby’s Breath, Mom’s House, Bucks County Women’s Center, Guiding Star Ministries, Bucks County Pro-Life Coalition. All proceeds will go to helping young mothers to care for their children. They greatly appreciate our generosity. Questions? Call Penny at 215 491-2564.

Through adoration, the Christian mysteriously contributes to the radical transformation of the world and to the sowing of the Gospel. Anyone who prays to the Savior draws the whole world with him and raises it to God. Those who stand before the Lord are therefore fulfilling an eminent service. They are presenting to Christ all those who do not know him or are far from him: they keep watch in his presence on their behalf.
