Good News!

September 20, 2020

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Is 55:6-9; Phil 1:20c-24, 27a; Mt 20:1-16a

The story in the Gospel doesn't sound fair. Some people worked from early morning until evening; others joined them at the end of the workday. But they all got the same pay. How can that be fair? Perhaps fairness isn't the point of the story. But then, what is? The landowner, symbolizing God, hired the workers "after agreeing with them for the usual daily wage" (Matthew 20:2). If the earliest workers presumed that the agreed-upon wage would be changed, does that make God unfair? Those workers expected God to conform to what they considered just—and justice certainly is a very important value. However, God acted out of divine generosity—a quality we hope to benefit from but which might engender resentment when it is bestowed upon others. As difficult as this story might seem to us, it raises some important questions about ourselves. Perhaps the story is not so much about God as it is about our own attitudes. If we are faithful to what we believe is God's will for us, do we then presume that God owes us some kind of compensation? Do we expect that God will act according to our standards of retributive justice (this-for-that) rather than restorative justice (bring-it-back-to-life)? Do we resent God's graciousness toward others? It is better that we all look to God for generosity than for justice. If we do, we will find, as the psalm response tells us: "The Lord is gracious and merciful" (Psalm 145:8). —Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA © 2020 Liguori Publications, Liguori, MO © 2010, All Rights Reserved

Hymns for Sept. 19-20, 2020

Opening: "Gather Us In"

1. Here in this place new light is streaming now is the darkness vanished away. See in this space our fears and our dreamings, Brought here to you in the light of this day Gather us in, the lost and forsaken, Gather us in, the blind and the lame, Call to us now and we shall awaken, We shall arise at the sound of our name.

2. We are the young, our lives are a mystery, we are the old who yearn for your face. We have been sung throughout all of history, called to be light to the whole human race. Gather us in, the rich and the haughty, Gather us in, the proud and the strong, Give us a heart so meek and so lowly, Give us the courage to enter the song.

3. Here we will take the wine and the water; here we will take the bread of new birth. Here you shall call your sons and your daughters, Call us anew to be salt for the earth. Give us to drink the wine of compassion, Give us to eat the bread that is you, Nourish us well and teach us to fashion, Lives that are holy and hearts that are true.

Psalm: "The Lord is near to all who call upon him."

Offertory: "Your Words are Spirit and Life"

Refrain: Your words are spirit and life, O Lord: Richer than gold, stronger than death. Your words are spirit and life, O Lord; Life everlasting.

1. God's law is perfect, refreshing the soul, reviving the weary spirit. God's rule can be trusted: bringing us wisdom, bringing God's wisdom to birth. (Ref.)

2. God's precepts keep us; their purpose is right. They gladden the hearts of people. God's command is so clear it brings us new vision; bringing God's light to our eyes. (Ref.)

3. Living by God's truth is holy and sure; God's presence is everlasting. God's truth is eternal, bringing us justice; bringing God's justice to earth. (Ref.)

Communion: "I Am the Living Bread"

Refrain: See this bread; take and eat and live in me. See this cup; take and drink remember me.

1. I am the living bread come down from heaven. All who eat my flesh and drink my blood will live, will live forever. (Ref)

2. I am the living bread; you shall not hunger. If you believe in me you shall not thirst, but live, but live forever. (Ref)

3. I am the living bread risen among you. If you believe in me, though you die, you will live, you will live forever. (Ref)

4. You are the living bread; life for the world. O Lord to whom shall we go? Your words, they live forever. (Ref)

Recessional: "Church of God Elect and Glorious"

1 Church of God, elect and glorious, holy nation, chosen race; called as God's own special people, royal priests and heirs of grace: know the purpose of your calling, show to all his mighty deeds; tell of love which knows no limits, grace which meets all human needs.

2 God has called you out of darkness into his most marvelous light; brought his truth to life within you, turned your blindness into sight. Let your light so shine around you that God's name is glorified; and all find fresh hope and purpose in Christ Jesus crucified.

3 Once you were an alien people, strangers to God's heart of love; but he brought you home in mercy, citizens of heaven above. Let his love flow out to others, let them feel a Father's care; that they too may know his welcome and his countless blessings share.

4 Church of God, elect and holy, be the people he intends; strong in faith and swift to answer each command your master sends: royal priests, fulfil your calling through your sacrifice and prayer; give your lives in joyful service sing his praise, his love declare.

A Prayer as I put on my mask

\(Ursuline Sisters of Chatham\)

Creator, as I prepare to go into the world, help me to see the sacrament in the wearing of this cloth – let it be “an outward sign of an inward grace” – a tangible and visible way of living Love for my neighbors, as I love myself.

Christ, since my lips will be covered, uncover my heart, that people would see my smile in the crinkles around my eyes. Since my voice may be muffled, help me to speak clearly, not only with my words, but with my actions.

Holy Spirit, as the elastic touches my ears, remind me to listen carefully – and full of care – to all those I meet.

May this simple piece of cloth be Shield and Banner, and each breath that it holds, be filled with Your Love. In your name and in the name of love, I pray.

May it be so, May it be so.

FROM OUR MSC SISTERS: Oktoberfest 2020 has been cancelled. Instead we will conduct an online GIFT CARD RAFFLE from Oct. 11-17 at MSCreading.org. We will forward emails when the raffle is live. Please check the sisters' website for information.
