Today we will take up the annual Pentecost Collection. The Diocese of Harrisburg is blessed to sponsor 11 Seminarians for priestly formation at this time. But these men need your help. Please pray for them, so that they may be formed as good and holy priests. If you are able, please also financially support their formation through the Pentecost Collection the weekend of May 18-19. The cost to educate one candidate for the priesthood is over $46,000 per year. This cost goes beyond the classroom, as the Seminarians are provided room, board, healthcare, and other nominal expenses. Please support our future priests through the Pentecost Collection. Should you wish to contribute to this collection, please remember to use the specially marked envelope for this collection or select the fund labeled “Pentecost” online.

Food for the Spirit:

“Enrich your soul in the great goodness of God: The Father is your table, the Son is your food, and the Holy Spirit waits on you and then makes His dwelling in you.”

May—The Blessed Virgin Mary

The month of May is the "month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady," and it is the occasion for a "moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world pay to the Queen of Heaven. During this month Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance" (Paul VI: Encyclical on the Month of May, no. 1).

Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is normally celebrated following the 11:00 AM Sunday Mass. Parents must be registered members of the parish and attend a baptism preparation class (held monthly) prior to the baptism. The requirements for godparents are established by the Catholic Church. Please call the parish office for information.

Sacrament of Marriage

Diocesan policy requires 9 to 12 months of preparation for Marriage. Contact the parish as soon as possible after engagement. No arrangements should be made prior to consultation with the pastor.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is available to all in need of healing. It should be given if an individual is gravely ill or near death but is available to all who are in need of healing, before major surgery or when one is hospitalized. The Anointing of the Sick also takes place on the last weekend of every month after each Mass: Saturday after the 5:00pm Mass and Sunday after both the 8:00am & 11:00 am Masses.

Adoration

Saint Andrew Parish will hold a Holy Hour & Eucharistic Adoration on the last Friday of each month. All members of the parish are encouraged to attend.

We can show our adoration to God in many ways, but in Eucharistic Adoration, we spend time adoring the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Calling all young Catholic men!

Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. We know where Jesus went in response to His Father's will: Where are you going? What is the Father's will for you? Quo Vadis Days is a time of recreation, fellowship, prayer, and discussions to help you explore our Lord's call in your life. There will be priests, seminarians, and other young men like yourself gathered together for these days. Activities will include prayer (Holy Mass, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Liturgy of the Hours, Rosary, etc.), games, bonfires, recreation and sports (soccer, capture the flag, volleyball, Ultimate Frisbee, flag football), talks, great food, and discussions. Quo Vadis Days is for men ages 15-25 and will be June 23-27 at Mount Saint Mary's University and Seminary. Cost is $100 per person. Details and registration can be found at <https://www.hbgdiocese.org/event/quo-vadis-days/>.

John Itell Knights of Columbus Scholarship

Council 2068 will again this year be offering a $2,000 scholarship to a deserving 2024 high school graduate who is a member of a local parish, Saint Andrew's, Waynesboro, Saint Rita's, Blue Ridge Summit, or Saint Mark's, Greencastle. Applications are available at the Council home, at the church parish office or on the web at standrewwbo.org/kofc2068. The deadline for the return of the application is May 27, 2024. For more information, please contact Fred Eisenhart at 717-762-7482 or frede39@comcast.net.

The Solemnity of Pentecost

Acts 2:1-11; 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13; Jn 20:19-23

Like a faceted gem whose brilliance takes different contours when examined from distinct angles, today's readings open up multiple dimensions of meaning for the feast of Pentecost. The gift of the Spirit to the disciples is one more facet of the ineffable mystery that encompasses Jesus's passion, death, resurrection, ascension, and glorification. For the Fourth Evangelist these all occur in one instant. Luke, in contrast, narrates each of these as a separate event, with precise time markers. He tells of resurrection appearances that took place over forty days before the ascension (Acts 1:3). Now on Pentecost, literally, the fiftieth day after Passover, the gift of the Spirit comes with audible and visible signs.

In Luke's infancy narrative, all the characters are filled with the Spirit: John the Baptist (1:15,17) Mary (1:35), Elizabeth (1:41), Zechariah (1:67), and Simeon (2:25-27). But once Jesus begins his ministry, only he is said to be empowered by the Holy Spirit. Now, on Pentecost, his followers receive this gift. Its first manifestation is facile communication across boundaries of difference. In Jerusalem there are Jewish residents (katoikountes means residents, not visitors for the feast) from every nation, and each understands in their native language. Luke gives us a powerful image of unity that is created when preachers, teachers, and catechists, gifted by the Spirit, adopt the culture and language of those with whom they share the good news.

In the Gospel of John, the Spirit is handed over at the moment of Jesus's death: Jesus declares, "It is finished," simultaneously he "handed over the Spirit" (19:30). This expression is not a euphemism for death; it is nowhere used that way in Scripture or in secular Greek literature. Again at 20:22 Jesus breathes on the disciples on Easter evening, saying, "Receive the holy Spirit." He revivifies them, just as the Creator did in bringing to life the first human being by blowing the breath of life into the nostrils (Gen 2:7).

The risen Christ passes through locked doors and empowers the disciples with the Spirit to continue his mission of unlocking with the gift of forgiveness any hearts bound in fear. The offer of forgiveness does not erase or make light of the wounds that have been inflicted, but it surrounds the woundedness with a power that moves toward healing and peace. The Spirit also enables the community of believers to hold on to each member and not lose anyone. In the second half of verse 23 there is no word "sins" in the Greek text. It does not speak of retaining "sins" of others but of a Spirit-enabled power to retain every beloved one, just as Jesus did not let a single one be lost (6:37, 39; 10:27-29, 17:12; 18:19).

Today we can consider: What gifts has the Spirit given me for welcoming the stranger? How can I understand better their ways of hearing the gospel? We can also ask the Spirit to help us claim the gift or forgiveness and the wisdom not to let go of any of God's beloved.

THE HOLY SPIRIT AND THE CHURCH

Pentecost Sunday is a celebration of the Holy Spirit descending on the Apostles, empowering them to spread the message of Jesus Christ to the ends of the earth. This special day is a reminder of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit in our lives, guiding and strengthening us in our faith journey. It is a time to remember the love of God, who sent his only Son for our redemption and His Spirit for our transformation.

The name Pentecost comes from the Greek word "pentekostos," which means "fiftieth". The festival has its roots in the Jewish feast of Shavuot, which was a thanksgiving for the firstfruits of the wheat harvest and a remembrance of the Law given by God to Moses on Mount Sinai. Historically, it was within the celebration of the feast of thanksgiving that the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles and the brethren with them. (cf. Acts 2:1-4)

Pentecost Sunday is also a reminder of the unity and diversity of the Church. The Holy Spirit came upon the Apostles, empowering them to speak in different languages so that all people could hear the message of the Gospel. This is a powerful reminder that the Church is meant to be a diverse and inclusive community, united in our common faith in Christ.

The Catholic Church teaches that the Holy Spirit is one of the three persons of the Holy Trinity, along with God the Father and God the Son (Jesus Christ). The Holy Spirit is seen as the Advocate, Comforter, and the one who empowers and inspires believers to live out their faith and carry out the mission of the Church.

The Catholic Church believes that the Holy Spirit is present and active in the world, guiding and sanctifying believers. The Holy Spirit is also believed to be the source of all spiritual gifts and fruits, such as wisdom, understanding, knowledge, piety, and courage.

Catholics believe that the Holy Spirit is received in a special way through the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. In Baptism, the Holy Spirit cleanses the individual from sin and imparts new life in Christ. In Confirmation, the Holy Spirit strengthens the individual to live out their faith and be witnesses of Christ in the world.

The Catholic Church also teaches that the Holy Spirit works through the Church, guiding and empowering the Church to carry out the mission of spreading the Gospel and serving others. The Holy Spirit is believed to be present in the teachings of the Church, guiding the magisterium in matters of faith and morals.

As we reflect on Pentecost Sunday, we are reminded of the importance of being open to the movement of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Just as the Apostles were filled with the Holy Spirit and emboldened to proclaim the Gospel, we too are called to be open to the Spirit's guidance and direction.

On this Pentecost Sunday, let us open our hearts to the movement of the Holy Spirit in our lives, seeking guidance, strength, and courage to spread the message of Jesus Christ to all corners of the world. May we be filled with the same boldness and passion of the Apostles, proclaiming the good news of salvation to all who will listen. Amen.

God Bless You,
Father Christopher

Daily Readings & Reflections

Monday, May 20, 2024
Memorial of The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church
 Gen. 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34

Pope Francis added a memorial to celebrate the Blessed Virgin Mary in her role as “Mother of the Church” every year on the Monday after Pentecost as a way to foster Marian piety and the “maternal sense of the church.” The Marian title of “Mother of the Church,” was given to the Blessed Mother by Blessed Pope Paul VI at the Second Vatican Council. With its addition to the General Roman Calendar, it will now be celebrated by the whole Roman Catholic Church. Ponder how your own faith has been nurtured within the church community, and take a moment to thank Mary for serving as mother of us all.

Tuesday, May 21, 2024
Memorial of Saint Christopher Magallanes, Priest & Companions, Martyrs

James 4:1-10 ; Mark 9:30-37

Christopher Magallanes was a priest in Mexico during a difficult time in Mexican history. On the heels of the Mexican Revolution of 1910-17, the Catholic Church and the Mexican state were at loggerheads. Magallanes wrote and preached against armed rebellion but was falsely accused of promoting armed uprising during what came to be called the Cristero Rebellion. Arrested in 1927 on his way to celebrate Mass, he gave his few possessions—as well as absolution—to his executioners. His last words were, “I die innocent and ask God that my blood may serve to unite my Mexican brethren.” Since 1929 church and state in Mexico have by and large avoided further violent conflict and are on much better terms than in the past. Pray for peaceful resolutions to conflicts in the world today.

Wednesday, May 22, 2024
Memorial of Saint Rita of Cascia, Religious

James 4:13-17 ; Mark 9:38-40

If you knew you would be canonized a saint and could choose your patronage now, for what cause would you cheerfully accept intercessions? Be careful in your selection: Saints become the patrons of causes they know all too well. Rita of Cascia is the patron saint of bad marriages, victims of spousal abuse, and loneliness, among other conditions she endured personally.

There are still many who seek her help today. Support local programs that assist families in trouble.

Thursday, May 23, 2024
 James 5:1-6 ; Mark 9:41-50

What might humble table salt have to teach us about God? Surprisingly, a lot! The Catholic Encyclopedia has an entire entry devoted to salt, noting that historically it almost always has had a sacred and religious character. As a seasoning, salt gives a kick of flavor and taste to what might otherwise be a bland meal. It’s also a preservative to keep food from going bad. The gospels use the symbol of salt to refer to Christ’s new life within us, an ingredient that indeed transforms our whole lives. How can you add some more seasoning to God’s activity in your life?

Friday, May 24, 2024

James 5:19-12; Mark 10:1-12

You may have noticed at Mass as the celebrant says, “A reading from the Holy Gospel according to . . .” that he traces a sign of the cross on the open book. At the same time, people in the congregation make a small sign of the cross on their foreheads, lips, and heart. This practice dates back at least as far as the 11th century. The significance of this threefold signing is to express our desire and intention to hear the gospel with an open mind, proclaim it with our lips, and cherish and safeguard it in our hearts. Make this a conscious habit at Mass and it will help you carry the gospel with you into the world in how you think, what you say, and how you live.

Saturday, May 25, 2024
Memorial of Saint Bede the Venerable, Priest & Doctor of the Church

James 5:13-20 ; Mark 10:13-16

You know the drill: You buy the book, then never read it. It gathers dust and remorse the longer it sits on the shelf. Your intentions were sincere, but time always seems short, energy scarce. It’s much easier to watch television or surf the internet than to give yourself to the pursuit of learning! The Venerable Bede made the time: for learning languages, studying scripture, pouring over histories, and becoming truly wise.

Men of St. Andrew!

Mark your calendars for the 46th annual Men's Retreat sponsored by Corpus Christi parish! The retreat will be held on August 2, 3 and 4—Friday evening through early Sunday afternoon.

The event is again being held at Mount St. Mary's University in Emmitsburg, MD. Reservations will be accepted beginning on May 1. This is a great spiritual opportunity to renew your spirit and His Love in your life! Reservations can be made by contacting Jeff Moyer at 717 360-1233.
