SOCIAL CONCERNS

"Seasons of Hope" - Bereavement Support Group

Seasons of Hope bereavement support group is centered on Jesus Christ and grounded in his healing wisdom, traditions, and practices of our faith.

We look for Christ in our grief journey. "Seasons of Hope" explores mourning through scripture, prayer, reflection, activities, and faith sharing.

"Seasons of Hope" gives the bereaved an opportunity to come together to share God's love. It provides a safe place to share thoughts and feelings. It also offers the knowledge that others are on the same grief journey and mutual support is given to each other.

We encourage strengthening our relationship with God by reading scripture, reading good books, listening to EWTN, encourage time spent with the Blessed Sacrament, and lastly be attuned that God works through people, if we are opened to see God working in all things.

"Seasons of Hope" consists of 6 week sessions. Our next session begins on Thursday, September 16th, at 10:00 am. For more information and to register contact Diane Dellinger at ddellinger7377@outlook.com or Maureen Robinson (302) 423 – 6366. Registration is required.

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, September 6th, in observance of Labor Day.

Our minds are tied to the rules, restrictions, and guides established for us by society. If we listen to our minds, we try to shape our decisions around other’s expectations. But it is our hearts that often tug us in different directions. It is never clearer than what has transpired not only in our country, but throughout the world, in how we have handled the COVID-19 crisis.

Did our leaders respond to the crisis quickly enough? Were they and science telling us the truth about the effects of the virus and the pandemic on world populations? The millions of people who lost their lives or were greatly sickened because of COVID-19 bears out that indeed it was real and devastating.

And yet conspiracy theories abound as to the effects of the virus in comparison to other diseases. Were people’s personal and spiritual freedom being challenged and infringed upon? Was the cost of life and severe sickness pitted against the economic effects felt by many affected by this terrible virus?

Even today, a year and a half into the COVID-19 crisis, our country is confronted with the reality of those who are vaccinated and those who are not! The very real struggles most of us face when confronting choices is whether to follow our mind or our heart. The struggle then becomes what someone said, “Life is what happens between heart and mind.”

The situation for Joseph when confronted with Mary’s pregnancy was very troubling. The Gospel pays Joseph the highest compliment by saying he was a “righteous man, a just man” (Mt 1:19). This meant he was a devout follower of the Law and completely open to all that God wanted to do for him. This made him a devout and holy Jew. He knew under Mosaic law, if he exposed Mary, her punishment would be death.

Instead, he chose to follow his heart and choose mercy. He decided not to expose her and exact vengeance for her betrayal, which would have been justified under Jewish law. Instead, he chose to divorce her “quietly” and not bring shame upon her and her family. Of course, the angel from God intervened and Joseph did indeed marry her, protected her, and welcomed with “open arms,” her son, the Savior of the world.

In the process of discernment between justice and mercy, the struggle between mind and heart, Joseph listened to his heart and embraced an act of mercy and not just ordinary mercy, but unmerited mercy.

For us, life is what happens between the “heart and mind” and is driven by what God desires for us and what our Church has taught throughout the years about justice, mercy, and love. Often, it is contrary to the way modern society thinks. Indeed, Joseph’s decision regarding our Blessed Mother, was contrary to his Jewish upbringing, but his decision demonstrated his understanding of the God he loved, and his decision was divinely justified.

Joseph, the “just and merciful man” was simply, joyfully, wholeheartedly obedient to God in marrying Mary, in welcoming Jesus into the world, in shepherding the precious pair to Egypt, in bringing them to Nazareth, and for caring for and protecting them with quiet faith and courage.

Returning from my recent travels in Europe, it became clear, our world is indeed a “small place,” and despite our cultural differences and language barriers, we all aspire for the same thing: happiness for ourselves and our loved ones and a world that lives in peace.

It may be a “pipe dream,” but it is certainly worthwhile to work towards achieving. St. Joseph teaches us that we must rely on our heart in our choices and relationships, seeking to understand others, and becoming like him, a model of mercy.

Blessings & peace,

Deacon Frank
