All parishioners are invited.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP! We want to thank everyone who brought donations of new and used clothing to the St. Vincent de Paul truck this morning. Then they will give their voices a rest for a few weeks, with choir rehearsals resuming again after Labor Day.
Happy Summer Vacation, Students!

Before turning their tassels, the 8th graders of OLQM Catholic Academy joined all the other student grade levels, the teachers, parents, and parish clergy for a half-day walk-a-thon on June 7th. Everyone’s common interest was making this fun day a success and sharing in school spirit!

Prayers for Religious Freedom Globally
On this Feast of Corpus Christi, the U.S. Catholic Bishops ask us to pray for Christians in the Middle East, who face pressure, threats, and even death for their beliefs. Here at home, as we head toward Independence Day, we pray and act for the freedom to follow Christ as missionary disciples and live our faith. Religious freedom protects the space in which the Church can continue to serve our neighbors through welfare services, migration and refugee resettlement, education, and the delivery of humanitarian aid. Please take a few moments each day this week to reflect on religious liberty, both in this country and abroad.
