MILITARY CHAPLAINS AND THE TROOPS

Heavenly Father, bless and protect Military Chaplains and fill them with the joy and courage of their vocation as personal ministers of Christ in preaching your word and nourishing us with the Sacraments. Grant this through Christ our Lord.Be present with those who serve, O Lord.

Be present with and guide all our military personnel. Sharpen their skills. Make their judgments true. Give them those things necessary to achieve their goals and defend our cause.Be present with those who serve, O Lord. Give to each man and woman your special love, strength, wisdom and grace that their fears may be laid aside, their faith fostered, their courage made sure, and their spirits comforted by the knowledge of your divine presence throughout their days.Be present with those who serve, O Lord. Guard and protect them from evil and the ways of darkness that threaten us. Send your holy angels to have charge over them and bear them up. Bring to us all the victory of light over darkness as you are the God of light and love.

MEMORIALS:

April 21st

The Bread and Wine is offered in Thanksgiving to God for the health of the Family

Martinez-Hernandez

Dear Friends,

I will begin to write again certain catechetical and liturgical topics next week, so please watch out for those articles. This week is more "business" centered. The Beyond Baptism program here in the parish has had it's first "Come to the Table" event this past Thursday. I want to thanks parishioner Matthew Mai and his team for leading this initiative for us. Our local implementation of the Eucharistic Revival will be successful through a combination of catechesis and prayer. All apostolic initiatives must be based in prayer. We must ask God to bless the work of our hands and direct our pastoral endeavors with the light of the Holy Spirit.

Believe it or not, but the parish carnival is only a little over a month away! This weekend we begin recruiting volunteers to work the various booths and jobs associated with this great event. It takes about 60+ volunteers per night to make the carnival function smoothly. On behalf of the carnival committee, please consider signing up for at least one evening. Moreover, I want to thank Denise Gordon and Diana Tenezaca for their hard work in leading the latter committee. Let us pray for good weather! The carnival runs from May 22–May 26.

Lastly, I would like to renew the invitation for participation in the Annual Appeal. As I noted back in February, it matters little how much one gives. Wha does matter is that we all give something. A parish's robust participation is a sign that we care about the charitable apostolates of the Archdiocese. Moreover, a full participation benefits our parish in the end: each parish is assigned a goal to meet. If a parish exceeds a given goal by June 30, the excess returns to the parish as a refund. The campus of our parish has several buildings which are old and in constant need of maintenance – every little bit is significant. On another page of this bulletin you can find our goal amount as well as where we stand now. One can see that we are a far way off from reaching our assigned goal. Please consider giving if you haven't done so already.

Queridos amigos,

Comenzaré a escribir nuevamente ciertos temas catequéticos y litúrgicos la próxima semana, así que estén atentos a esos artículos. Esta semana está más centrada en los "negocios". El programa Más Allá del Bautismo aquí en la parroquia tuvo su primer evento "Ven a la Mesa" el jueves pasado. Quiero agradecer al feligrés Matthew Mai y su equipo por liderar esta iniciativa para nosotros. Nuestra implementación local del Avivamiento Eucarístico tendrá éxito a través de una combinación de catequesis y oración. Todas las iniciativas apostólicas deben basarse en la oración. Debemos pedirle a Dios que bendiga el trabajo de nuestras manos y dirija nuestros esfuerzos pastorales con la luz del Espíritu Santo.

Lo creas o no, ¡pero falta poco más de un mes para el carnaval parroquial! Este fin de semana comenzamos a reclutar voluntarios para trabajar en los distintos puestos y trabajos asociados con este gran evento. Se necesitan más de 60 voluntarios por noche para que el carnaval funcione sin problemas. En nombre del comité de carnaval, considere inscribirse al menos para una noche. Además, quiero agradecer a Denise Gordon y Diana Tenezaca por su arduo trabajo al liderar este último comité. ¡Oremos por el buen tiempo! El carnaval se celebrará del 22 al 26 de mayo.

Por último, me gustaría renovar la invitación a participar en la Campaña Anual. Como señalé en febrero, poco importa cuánto uno da. Lo que importa es que todos demos algo. La sólida participación de una parroquia es una señal de que nos preocupamos por los apostolados caritativos de la Arquidiócesis. Además, una participación total beneficia al final a nuestra parroquia: a cada parroquia se le asigna una meta que cumplir. Si una parroquia excede una meta fijada antes del 30 de junio, el exceso regresa a la parroquia como reembolso. El campus de nuestra parroquia tiene varios edificios que son antiguos y necesitan mantenimiento constante; cada detalle es significativo. En otra página de este boletín puede encontrar nuestro monto objetivo y nuestra situación actual. Se puede ver que estamos muy lejos de alcanzar la meta asignada. Considere donar si aún no lo ha hecho.

PRAYERS IN THE PEW™

National Eucharistic Revival Supplement – April 2024

The Easter Season is about the joy of the Resurrection! During the Eucharistic Revival, we feel joy in the Eucharist just like the disciples on the Road to Emmaus experienced in the breaking of bread with Jesus.

THE JOY OF THE EUCHARIST

Eucharistic Saint

St. Catherine of Siena (1347-1380) was a lay woman who is best known for reconciling warring cities in Italy and bringing the pope back to Rome from his exile in France. She was gifted with intense visions of Jesus who told her how to reform the Church. When Catherine died at the young age of 33 she had lived her entire adult life on no food except the Holy Eucharist.

Back to Basics

EASTER DUTY: In order to emphasize that the Eucharist is the most important institution and reality of our faith, the Catholic Church actually requires the faithful to receive Communion during the Easter Season.

This practice is called the "Easter Duty" and is considered one of the five precepts of the Church: You shall humbly receive your creator in Holy Communion at least during the Easter season. (Catechism, 2041–2043)

In an age where people receive the Eucharist frequently, this may not seem like a "duty" as such, but it is connected with another equally important precept: You shall confess your sins at least once a year. Thus, every year, the Church reminds each of us to keep our spiritual priorities in the proper order.

Calls to Action

Concern for Souls – The Eucharist gives us spiritual strength for our journey through life. Perhaps you know fallen away Catholics who are spiritually "starving" from being away from the Bread of Life for so long. Easter may be a time to invite them back to the joy of the Eucharist.

Evangelize – Make sure to be a teacher and evangelizer of the Eucharist to non-Catholics also by handing out prayer cards and materials for people to learn about this great gift of our Catholic faith.

"When we work hard, we must eat well. What a joy that you can receive Holy Communion often! It's our life and support in this life. Receive Communion often, and Jesus will change you into himself."
~ St. Peter Julian Eymard
