Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life".

This Gospel offers an explanation for the faith we bear, both a resting place and a source of hope. St. John states that "because of the great love with which God loved us, Jesus has come to save the world and not to condemn it". God has come to save and not to punish us, and He does this by means of the Cross of Christ. We attain this redemption by means of our faith or we can reject it because we do not believe in Jesus. But God can save only those who accept Jesus, in faith, as the light of our lives. If we do not close our eyes to the Light of Christ, we are on our way to salvation. St. John's message, our true hopes, gives us confidence, despite our sinfulness.

As true Christians we are called to a personal encounter with the living Jesus Christ as a way to conversion, communion, and solidarity. So, we make and renew our commitment in the Holy Eucharist to live as one with people and nations who suffer the consequences and the heavy sum of debt. We must help them to rise again with hope, with joy, and to walk in the new millennium with a renewed faith that whoever lives the truth will live in the light. And may those who walk in the light have Eternal Life.

Prayerfully,

Deacon Joe

For God so Loved the World

I KNOW
GOD TOLD ME NOT TO, BUT...

When God made the world He wanted the people to be His friends and always live in happiness. But instead of choosing to love God completely, the people sinned. They were cut off from the happiness of God because they chose to love themselves more than they loved God.

But God still loved the people so much that He sent His Son, Jesus, to save the people from their sins. Now we just need to choose to believe in Jesus, and to love Him. As today's Gospel reading says, "...so must the Son of man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him may have eternal life."

How can we turn to Jesus so that we can be saved from our sins?

Here are a few things that can help you a lot:

1. When you wake up in the morning, tell Jesus that you are offering everything that happens today to Him.

2. Every day look at a crucifix (a cross with Jesus on it.) Think about how much Jesus loves us. How much do we love Him back?

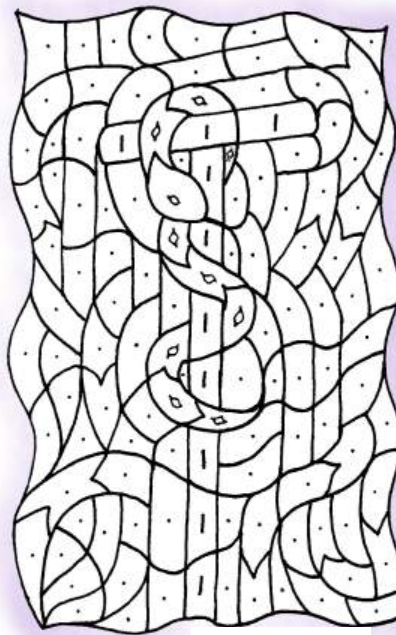

3. Each night before you go to sleep, think about your day. Did you show your love for God today? If you did something bad, be sorry and think about how can you do better tomorrow.

Shortly after birth, Nicholas was diagnosed with Cooley's Anemia, a life-threatening blood disorder that required him to receive blood transfusions every 3 weeks to stay alive. The only approved cure for Cooley's Anemia is a Bone Marrow Transplant. Nicholas was blessed to find a matching donor and received a bone marrow transplant in 2019. He is now considered cured by his transplant team since he no longer requires blood transfusions to survive!

Please help Nicholas continue his mission of helping to ensure all patients have the blood they need to survive.
