Mass Calendar and Intentions

From Your Priests

Fr. John Brancich, FSSP, Pastor

It has become apparent that my parents are no longer able to remain in their house of almost 30 years, and so my sisters and I are helping them move into a senior apartment. With the accumulation of “stuff” from over 50 years of marriage, this seems like a rather monumental task. Next week (February 1-6), I will take vacation to return home to assist with this. Having just been home for a Christmas visit, I was not expecting to return so soon, but the health of my parents and the situation makes it necessary. Thank you for your prayers for my parents. My father seems to be in remission from the cancer but has difficulty with balance and movement and the new apartment will make things much easier for him and my mother (and my sister who lives nearby and takes great care of them).

Parish Announcements

The Church Unity Octave is prayed each day beginning January 18 and ending on January 25, the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. During these eight days prayers are offered up for those separated from the Church that Christ founded. The Octave prayers will be prayed after Mass each day and at all of the Sunday Masses. Please take a prayer card with the prayers when entering the Church today.

The following classes on the Catechism and Sacred Liturgy will be taught beginning in February and continuing through May.

- Catechism for All Ages (Confirmed youth and all adults) 1st and 3rd Saturdays of the month, 11 a.m. until Noon, Church basement and online. In this class, Fathers Brancich and Liebert will work through the Catechism, helping both new and old firm up their understanding of Church teachings and beliefs.
- Sacred Liturgy Mondays, 6-7 p.m., Church basement and online. Father van Zee will explore the treasure of the Church which is the Traditional Sacred Liturgy, including the Holy Mass and other ceremonies of the Catholic Church.

To register for either or both of these classes,

1. Log into your My Own Church Profile <https://manchester.parishsoftfamilysuite.com/>
2. Click the “Catechism Program” tab
3. Click “Online Registration” on the blue bar
4. Fill out and submit the form. (Be sure to choose either “In Person” or “Online” for each class).

In person attendance is limited to 24 people in the Church basement. Paper registration forms are also available in the Church vestibule. Please contact the parish office if you encounter any problems with online registration.

Parish Announcements (cont'd)

Do you have questions about the Catholic Faith? Have you thought about becoming Catholic? Do you just want to ask questions with no pressure or expectations? If you are not Catholic or know someone that wants to explore the Catholic Faith, the priests of St. Stanislaus have an invitation for you. We offer a Catholic Inquiry Class for anyone not Catholic with these questions. We are starting a new class for the new year and will set the class at a day and time that works for all the participants. This class is only for those who are not Catholic or baptized Catholics who were never raised in the Faith. Father van Zee will teach the basics of the Faith and explain the path to entering the Catholic Church or receiving the Sacraments for the first time. Please sign up at www.latinmassnashua.org/inquire

Liturgical Question Box

Q. I am confused about these Sundays after Epiphany. This year there are three, but one year there was six. Why?

A. Some feasts are fixed on a particular date each year (e.g. Christmas, December 25th or Epiphany, January 6.). Other feasts are "moveable feasts" which means that the date changes (e.g. Ascension Thursday, which is 40 days after Easter). The date of Easter is determined by the "lunar (moon) calendar." Because the lunar calendar only has 29 days in a month, the date of Easter moves all around our regular calendar and can be any-where between March 22 and April 25. This means that the number of weeks between Epiphany and Easter can vary by several weeks depending on whether Easter is early or late in the calendar. The 40 days before Easter, of course, are the time of Lent, and the three weeks before Lent are the time of Septuagesima. Septuagesima and Ash Wednesday (the start of Lent) – are dependent on Easter. That leaves a gap of time between Epiphany (a fixed date, January 6) and Septuagesima (a moveable date) which can be anywhere between one and six Sundays. Any of the Sundays that are not used between Epiphany and Septuagesima in a given year are used in the time at the end of the Church liturgical year, just before Advent. This year, Easter is midway through where it could possibly be (April 4) and so three of the six Sundays are used now.

Altar servers will have 1 more training session Saturday, January 30 at 2 p.m. in the Church (Winchester). Then, everyone will be scheduled starting in February. Please study the book and practice the responses and plan to attend the final practice so you will be ready to start serving when you are scheduled.

There is now a dedicated web page for schedules and announcements for St. Stanislaus in Winchester at www.latinmassnashua.org/winchester

All are reminded of the necessity of making a proper thanksgiving after Mass. It is understandable, especially on the weekdays, if someone needs to leave quickly for work, but those without such an urgent need should remember the great miracle which they have been a part of in the Mass and give God some time of thanksgiving (at least a minute or two after the priest and servers process out).

Everyone is invited Saturday, January 30 after the 9 a.m. Mass to help take down and store the parish Christmas decorations. Many hands are appreciated!
